OPTIMISM is a Core Value at Horseshoe Bend Elementary School

Written by Tracy Koslosky
HORSESHOE BEND --

OPTIMISM is the current core value focus of the Horseshoe Bend School District. During a recent elementary school assembly, students were treated to a skit performed by teachers and staff that represented optimism at work. Students learned that optimism is the ability to look on the more favorable side of a given situation. Horseshoe Bend Elementary School principal Cora Larson raffled off books to students who had met their accelerated reading goals. Winners were 5th grader KayLee Bowery, 4th grader Jack Wolfe, 3rd graders Vilate Wilson and Myles Osorio, and 1st graders Dean Evans, Payzlee Pruitt, and Wyatt Lowe. The assembly ended on a high note with students and staff dancing to "Best Day of My Life" by the band American Authors.

HORSESHOE BEND --

The Placer Lodge of Horseshoe Bend, part of the Grand Lodge of Idaho Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, traveled to Horseshoe Bend Elementary School once again to award three deserving students with bicycles. Their Bikes For Books program promotes reading for success. The criteria to be entered to win a bike has students participating in an Accelerated Reader Program (AR). Students that meet their AR goal are awarded one entry in the bike drawing.

Additional entries are earned when students surpass their goal and/or earn a 75% or better score on comprehension quizzes for books they read. The students receive gift certificates which enable them to pick out the bicycle of their choice at a local Walmart.

HORSESHOE BEND --

Idaho Power employees made Christmas special for families in need in the Horseshoe Bend and Basin School Districts. Employees make contributions all year to the Idaho Power Employee Community Fund, and Idaho Power Company shareholders match those contributions almost dollar-for-dollar, then the employees decide who to donate funds to. This season, the employees chose to make students in Horseshoe Bend and Idaho City the recipients of some of those funds. Each school received a check for $750 to help spread some holiday cheer. Idaho Power Business and Community Development advisor, Bryan Wewers (right) presented a check for $750 to the Horseshoe Bend Elementary School Principal Cora Larson (center), and Horseshoe Bend Schools' Counselor Jason Hennig (left).

"Christmas is a real special time," said Wewer. "This is our way of helping out. We feel the school is a great resource to distribute the funds."

Checks were presented to the Horseshoe Bend & Basin School Districts from the Idaho Power Employee Community Fund.

GVSC Preview of Coming Events
The past year has been extremely successful at the Center. The coming year will commence with new traditions and events. The following is a preview of coming attractions for 2020, with a focus on the first three months.

January will see us return to our regular schedule, with Potluck Lunches each Tuesday at 11:30 AM. These gatherings are small and informal, and they are a perfect way for those new to the community to come out, see the Center, and begin to meet others. Fit and Fall Proof classes return on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3:00. This is another opportunity to get out, get moving, and meet others. The class is designed around individual needs and is nothing to stress about. The idea is to move those joints and reduce that stress. Aerobics is on Wednesdays at 4:00 with easy routines. These movement classes are not like those you see on television, with personal trainers (drill sergeants) barking at you. Think “fun, easy, friendly.”

February will be exciting as we have our regular activities return, including Bingo on the First Friday, February 1. Win cash and prizes and meet people. Many new folks attended the January 3rd Bingo. The Arts Council’s Chocolate Auction will be on February 8. This is a feast for the eyes and tummies. The Gourmet Dinners will return on February 11. Our hosts are the Garden Valley Fire Protection District Auxiliary. The menu? What else: Fire House Chili. Three variations will be offered, along with salad, dessert and beverages for only $10. There will also be a valuable and timely presentation on Propane Safety. On February 29, the Talent Show will be performed at the Crouch Community Hall. This event has always been designed to interrupt any winter doldrums and is guaranteed to please. As one of the Center’s main fundraisers, donations are accepted at the door. Mark your calendars and get your acts together for the big Leap Year Show. Need costuming for your act? Come to Granny’s and get inspired.

March generally does come in like a lion in Garden Valley, however, we ignore that and continue having fun at the Center. The March Gourmet Dinner will be hosted by the Garden Valley Quilters, a highly talented group. We can’t wait to see what they cook up on March 10. The menu will be advertised in advance.
Moving into summer, don’t forget the Annual 4th of July Pancake Breakfast, another event that packs the house. This year we will have our patio refurbished with deck finish and metal patio furniture. Refinishing the deck is always a great opportunity to get some exercise. Volunteer now and beat the rush!

Our HOA’s and a variety of other community groups also rent out that facility. We recommend that you call and get your date scheduled early so we can work out any scheduling conflicts. Members get a cut rate on the building rental fee. We also rent tables and chairs for your summer events. Again, call early to reserve them now since Garden Valley seems to be a destination for wonderful outdoor weddings.
Our Board meets every second Tuesday at 9:30 AM at the Center. Members are welcome and encouraged to attend. We work on the general business matters of the Center and keep our calendar straight. If you are new to the community, we are happy to sign you up as members. Beware, though, we have a list of “opportunities” for help with activities.
As we move forward, our theme that “Membership Matters” will carry through the year. Consider joining and helping us in that purpose. We want to see you at the Center!

Grief Support Class
in Garden Valley

GARDEN VALLEY -- Grief encompasses more than just the loss of someone you love. The bottom line of grief is LOSS of some kind. Loss changes our lives in many ways...and may also change our brains and the way we think. Loss changes our behavior and feelings about ourselves.

MEET IDAHO CITY'S HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL MR. PORTER ~ WRITTEN BY STUDENTS

BASIN SCHOOL DISTRICT
Who is Mr. Porter? Mr. Porter is an amazing principal who values family and community, as well as education. Here at our high school, he isn't just a principal, but a respected teacher and coach as well. Mr. Porter believes in many different teaching philosophies and that almost all kids learn in multiple ways. He would like to provide them with something that will keep them engaged and challenged. His philosophies have changed over the years and are still changing every day. Mr. Porter wanted to become a principal because he wanted to be able to impact the school in more ways than just in a classroom. He has been here at our school for nineteen years. He plans on having Idaho City High School continue to be a place where students feel safe and comfortable, quite simply a place where students want to go. Porter has a connection to the students here. He feels that being a part of our school district takes a lot of responsibility and strives to create a feeling of connection and belonging. Mr. Porter never believed he would become a principal and thought he would become an electrical lineman, like a couple of his brothers. Before teaching here, he worked in utility construction, building power lines. Outside of school he hunts, enjoys fishing, reads, and spends time with his wife and three daughters, all of which attend our school. His hobbies outside of school keep him humble. He attended Boise State University for his teaching degree and got his master's degree from the University of Idaho. He grew up with two sisters and five brothers. He had planned on being a teacher at this school for one year, but ended up teaching here for nineteen years. He became a principal as well, on his seventeenth year. In summation, some of his contributors to his success are his family, the staff/teachers, and previous experience as a teacher. He feels that the best thing to have happened to our school is being built within a great community filled with good people. He found his job as a teacher, from an ad in the newspaper that his friend showed him, at the time, he had been to Idaho City but had never been to Idaho City High School. Porter has brought lots of new technology and learning methods to the classrooms. We are lucky to have him here at our school and he brings a feeling of connection between the students and staff.

Written by students: Jayden Hofer, Daniel Senteney, Charlie Culver, Paige Heckathorn, Brennin Kerr, Tyler Lucas, and Chris Ringuette.

ICHF Receives Preservation Grant

Written by Rick Ardinger
IDAHO CITY -- The Idaho City Historical Foundation recently received a $2,000 grant from the Idaho Heritage Trust (IHT) to preserve its many structures and buildings. The IHT is the statewide nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting historical preservation efforts throughout Idaho. Funds will be used to apply state-of-the-art preservatives to the surfaces of the ICHF's buildings, such as the Boise Basin Museum, Pon Yam House, the Strauss House, the Hawley House, Galbraith House, Pest House, Fire Station, and other 19th and early 20th century historic structures. "We're immensely grateful to the Idaho Heritage Trust for its longstanding support of our efforts to preserve Idaho City and Boise Basin history," said Beth Wilson, President of the Idaho City Historical Foundation. "The IHT has supported our efforts many times over the years. We are very grateful once again for this vital, renewing support." The Idaho City Historical Foundation has over the years also been the recipient of the IHT's $10,000 Glenn Janss Award for preservation of the Pon Yam House. The Foundation also received the $10,000

Sister Alfreda Elsensohn Award in 2015, Idaho's most prestigious award for historic preservation. The Elsensohn Award is a pooled-funds award of the IHT, the Idaho Humanities Council, and the Idaho State Historical Foundation. The new IHT grant requires the Idaho City Historical Foundation to match it, dollar for dollar. "We welcome contributions from members of the community to help us match this IHT grant to make the most of this opportunity for our community," Wilson said. The IHT is supported in large part by a small percentage of each red-white-and-blue Idaho vehicle license plate sale, as well as by donations. The IHT was founded by the Idaho Centennial Commission as a lasting legacy effort of Idaho's 1990 State Centennial Celebration, and since then has supported hundreds of projects to preserve the historic fabric of Idaho. The Idaho City Historical Foundation maintains more property and buildings than most small historical foundations in Idaho. The discovery of gold in the Boise Basin in the 1860s brought settlement to the area, and that history helps bring thousands of visitors to Boise County every year. "We like to say that history is our future," Wilson said. "Our stories support the economy of our community."

Horseshoe Bend's City Council Meeting

Written by Tracy Koslosky
HORSESHOE BEND -- The following is a synopsis of the Horseshoe Bend City Council's 674th meeting on December 18, 2019. All council members were present; Mayor Pat Goff was not in attendance. Councilmember Teresa Cooper filled in for Goff, who was on vacation. After the call to order, Pledge of Allegiance, the council's approval of the agenda, previous minutes, and the authorization to pay the city's bills, Cooper opened by inquiring why the bill from Idaho Power for the park was $60 instead of the usual $12. The Public Works department agreed to investigate.

No one came forward during the public comments portion of the meeting, so Cooper went to Boise County Emergency Management Coordinator Bob Showalter who was on the agenda to discuss the City's Emergency Operations Plan (EOP). Showalter explained to the council the importance of having an EOP, as well as knowing who to contact in case of an actual emergency. He encouraged the council to consider forming an emergency team committee to help formulate a working EOP for Horseshoe Bend. According to Showalter, this should include the mayor, a council member, and the city fire chief. Residents of Watson Road were on hand to discuss new business concerning the city authorizing Duane Brothers (See synopsis of 11/21 meeting) to erect a fence and reclaim his property that Watson Road was encroaching upon. Resident Kit Smith was concerned that emergency vehicles would no longer be able to access Watson Road when needed. Smith asked the council if they "took into consideration EMS access when allowing this?" City attorney Tony Pantera replied, "My understanding is that there is sufficient access." Resident George Du Pont inquired if there was "anyway to enforce no parking along Watson Road?" Council members Marty White and Curtis Corvinus agreed that there was no room to park along Watson Road. Smith told the council that Watson Road was now 11' wide as compared to other roads in the city which are between 14' to 18' wide. According to Smith, five residences were affected by the narrowing of Watson Road. An unidentified audience member told the council that a snowplow wouldn't be able to access the road at this point. Smith implored the council to "come together and get it right." He added, "I want to see something happen here pretty quick; it's not a good situation." Resident Jeri Dufresne addressed the council by telling them: "Things happen, emergencies happen, please take this seriously." Council member Ben Riley asked the residents in attendance if they would be "willing to give up two to three feet of their property?" Smith replied, "There's no room on the north." Smith concluded by stating, "My concern is life and structures." Councilmember White told the residents, "Let us see what we could do." Corvinus followed with, "We'll get it figured out." City Fire Chief Jason Gifford was in the audience and told the council that a 20' roadway was standard in the county. Cooper ended the debate saying, "Let's find out what our requirements are and go from there." Liquor licenses were approved for the following businesses: The Corner Café, Rays Market, The Longbranch, Locking Horns Riverside, Sonora, Valley View Chevron, and the White Horse Mercantile. The council unanimously approved the purchase of ten channel radios for the EMS department at a cost of $2,800.00. There was a discussion to purchase a LifePak 15 monitor/defibrillator for the ambulance for $20,870.00. The current monitor being used is not working correctly. EMS volunteer Nina Dome told the council, "It's as important as a gurney; we use it for every call and we haven't had it for three months. It's craziness!" The council made a motion to purchase a LifePak 15 under the following conditions: The purchase must include a 5-year warranty with some sort of service schedule and a non-appropriation clause must be included if payment is to be made. The motion passed unanimously by a roll call vote. Public works reported that they were getting ready for winter and that a recent power outage had caused problems at the sewage plant. Some of the damage to a component couldn't be repaired and would need to be replaced. Councilmember Cooper suggested that the council find a new contractor to make the new city hall sign because they had been waiting for it for over 2 years. Councilmember White said, "Call these people and tell them we don't need their sign, we'll have someone else build the sign." The city engineer reported on the bridge, saying, "No news is good news." City attorney Pantera had nothing to report. The public meeting ended at 8:06 p.m. as the council went into executive session. The council meets next on Wednesday, January 15 at 7:00 p.m.

"Freedom, being the main leading cause for any successful society ruled by government, was prevalent from the very beginning of our country. Our ability to even have the freedom that we have today was all set in place by our powerful constitution. The individual freedoms we can all align with were given to us and ensured by the Bill of Rights; this is something that makes our government strong and still never encroaches on our freedoms."

"Our workforce is excellently established by a system known as a free market. This system allows hardworking Americans to make a living for themselves and provide for their families by letting each company and business to restrict themselves based on the competition without government involvement. Our ability to provide supply and demand throughout our country is a remarkable thing. The economy is something that has been provided, but we as a people are able to continue to ensure its success."

"Religion is a topic that, no matter what, is always looked upon by others with judgment, whether it's by different religions or their own, but America was based on principles that are accepting and grateful of freedom of religion and of the morals that these religions provided. The laws and social expectancies that we practice today are only in place because those who came before us shaped the ideas and morals that these religions had shown."

"Over time America's rights for women have only gotten better. We are allowed to choose what career we want and what college and schools we want to go to. Women can do any job that a man does. We are able to speak freely and wear what we want in public. Our life is not led by whether or not we get married. It isn't led by the men in our lives, either. In some other countries women can't do certain jobs or wear what they want in public. Their lives are led by men. Here women have many rights, and I am thankful. Women's rights makes America great."

"Our military is filled with people who volunteer to fight for us. None of our soldiers are drafted. All of them are men and women who chose to take this career path and fight for our country. These people face many dangers and threats every day, yet they still stand tall and strong. The grit these people have is what I hope to achieve one day. They stay strong through experiences they may never forget. Our military makes America great."

"America has many reasons that make it great from women's rights, to our freedom and our military. I am blessed to live in a country that gives me the freedom to speak, to be able to do any job I want as a woman, and the military we have."

BOISE COUNTY

COUNTY CLERK'S CORNER: PARTY AFFILIATION

UPDATES FROM THE BOISE COUNTY ELEC- TIONS DEPARTMENT

BOISE COUNTY -- Our office recently received important information from the Secretary of State's Office, regarding party affiliation for the upcoming Presidential Primary Election taking place on March 10th, 2020, and which we are passing on to the public.

We have been notified that the following party affiliations will be participating in the Presidential Primary: Republican Party, Democratic Party, and Constitution Party. Further, both the Democratic and Constitution parties will allow registered electors affiliated with their party (i.e. affiliated "Democratic" or affiliated "Constitution") as well as unaffiliated registered electors, to participate in the Presidential Primary. Only registered electors affiliated with the Republican Party will be allowed to participate in the Republican Presidential Primary.

In addition to having multiple party affiliations participate in the Presidential Primary, registered voters may change party affiliation up to, and including, the day of the Presidential Primary on March 10th.

Party affiliation for the May Primary (County) will end at 5:00 p.m. on March 13th, 2020. The filing period for declaration of candidacy for the May Primary begins on March 2nd, 2020 at 8:00 a.m., and closes on March 13th, 2020 at 5:00 p.m.

The Secretary of State's Office, Elections Division, has revised the Application for Absentee Voter's Ballot, which is required to be completed annually for those wishing to vote absentee in any or all of the four calendar year election dates. The revised form will be made available in mid-January

(to ensure that there are no further changes from the State) and will be posted to the Boise County website (www.boisecounty.us) and will also be available at the Clerk's Office at 420 Main St., Idaho City.

Elect Lee Wilkinson Boise County Sheriff

1. I want to bring back Protect and Serve, as an elected official it's the duty of the sheriff to Protect and Serve.
2. I will make sure I am available to the public for comment, concern or just a friendly chat.
3. I will institute a reserve deputy program that will put more eyes and ears out in the community, it will give people- especially younger folks - a chance to learn and a possible new career path. I believe that using the reserve program to hire deputies will give us a high quality and dedicated deputy.
4. Using a community-policing model I want to engage more with the public and have the deputies engage more with the public. The deputies and I would do more to help citizens resolve issues rather than just directing them to the court system.
5. I also will keep pressure on the small time criminal; keeping pressure on small time criminals will help to reduce larger crime.

Paid for by the committee to elect Lee Wilkinson

Opinion ~ Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I always look forward to the delivery of my Idaho World each week and I read the whole paper from front to back.

There was two articles in the January 1st. issue that really got my attention. The first one was about our Sheriffs Deputy Sgt. Scott Turner and our community coming together to save a stranded father and his son near Pilots Peak. The hero's that went out that night to save a family in need deserves all of our thanks and appreciation. They made me proud to live in Boise County.

The other article turned my stomach and made me angrier than I’ve been in a long time. There was a mother with her four children stranded in sub-zero weather around Granite Creek while getting a Christmas Tree. Unfortunately, this one received a totally different and possibly life-threatening response. The Grandmother of these children went to the Sheriffs Department looking for help to find her lost daughter and grandkids. She was told it was too dark and they could not help her. I want to know who was the no-good coward in the Sheriffs Department that made that decision not to help those people. Was it the dispatcher, was it the Sheriff just didn’t want to get out of bed or was it the Deputy on duty? Who was the Deputy on duty that night, 12/162019, (obviously it was not Scott Turner) . The citizens of Boise County should be outraged over this lack of humanity from our Sheriffs Department. Someone should be fired over this. If you are so lazy or so scared of the dark that you would let a family freeze to death rather than try to help, you need to get the hell out. I want to hear from the Sheriff concerning this and I want to hear the Sheriff apologize to this family for his department's lack of humanity.

I would like to give the employees of the Gold Mine Grill a big “THANK YOU” for taking charge and helping this family.

YOU AND YOU ALONE probably saved their lives.

OBITUARY

Oscar Baumhoff
1937 – 2020

"It's a wonderful life I have had!!!!"

This remark on his Christmas Card accompanied a picture of Oscar Baumhoff driving his old D-8 Cat in November 2019. "They said I'm too old to drive my pickup! Glad they forgot the Cat," he wrote. This was his way of saying goodbye to his friends. The former Boise County Commissioner, Basin School District School Board Chairman, and 2015 Idaho Tree Farmer of the Year would complete his life where he'd spent most of his 82 years, at home in Centerville on January 6, 2020.

Oscar's 6-B license plates declared where his heart lived: Centerville. Edward Oscar Baumhoff was born Dec. 21, 1937, in Pocatello, and arrived at the big white house on the hill in Centerville five weeks later as the newly adopted son of Pearl and Fred Baumhoff. Although there were relocations in his early years, home was always Centerville. He loved life at the edge of the forest near Grimes Creek. He felt restored by the quiet, slower pace and the informality of life-long friends.

In 1947, his father purchased a D-8 Caterpillar tractor. Within a few years, Oscar was operating it, and through the years the Cat was integral to his work around Centerville.

Oscar met his future wife, Dorothy Reynolds, at Boise High School. They became a couple immediately, graduating together in 1956 and going on to college at the University of Idaho. They were married in August 1957 and welcomed their first son the following August. They went on to welcome five more children. Oscar and Dorothy celebrated their 34th anniversary before Dorothy died after a battle with Breast Cancer in 1991. During her battle with cancer, they started Dorothy's Jelly Business, "Homemade by Dorothy", of which many family members have participated over the past 35 years. Oscar annually went to North Idaho to pick up hundreds of gallons of frozen huckleberries, it was something he looked forward to every fall.

Oscar joined the Placer Lodge #3 AF&AM of Idaho and became a Master Mason March 3, 1962. Oscar was a 57 year Mason he was also a 32nd Degree Scottish Rite Mason. He remained active in the lodge his entire life. He was proud to have two grandsons join Placer Lodge #3 AF&AM of Idaho.

While Oscar was studying mining engineering at Moscow, the world changed. His father sold the dredge. Oscar and his Dad came up with a new plan for the Centerville property, cattle ranching. They purchased the Dry Creek Ranch just north of Boise, now Hidden Springs, and a herd of Herford Cattle. Using the D-8 Cat, Oscar turned rocky dredge tailings into pastures along the streams and brought the herd of cattle to the mountains every summer. He trailed them for three days over Cartwright toll road and up Harris Creek to Star Ranch, then finally into Centerville.

While his father had served as a state senator, Oscar chose to serve in other ways. Oscar joined the Idaho National Guard during high school and served seven years. Having attended the one room school at Centerville, he was concerned about local education for his own family and joined the Basin District School Board in the mid-1960s at a time when the Idaho City School was beginning to grow. Serving 20 years on the board, most of it as chairman, he saw the school increase from three rooms serving 50 students, to 300 students in grades 1-8, and facility expansions to include multipurpose rooms and a library. He took great satisfaction in the fact that funding for the expansion was accomplished through grants, without local tax increases.

In the mid 1970's, Oscar and Dorothy bought The Idaho World when the weekly newspaper was in danger of going out of business. For the next 10 years, he worked with the staff, often driving around the county himself to make newspaper deliveries.

Oscar was elected to two terms as a Boise County Commissioner. He was part of the board that created a self-funded county insurance program, Idaho Counties Risk Management Program (ICRMP). He continued as the Boise County Representative on the Board of the Central District Health Department for over 20 years, at this same time he also served on the board of the Children's Home Society of Idaho.

In 1979 Oscar learned of his birth family, Marion and Ted D. Hamilton of Mohler, Idaho, and reunited with his mother and met his brother, Wally Hamilton, which was the beginning of a close relationship between the two brothers. They frequently traveled together, including a 5-week cross-country road trip. Wally eventually moving to Boise in the late 1990's ply for and received funding to build a Community Center at Centerville. He then turned his focus to reclamation work on the creeks around Centerville and on forest management practices, planting 6000 trees at Rye Flat on Grimes Creek. In 2015, he was named Idaho Tree Farmer of the year for his work with Timber Management and rehabilitating areas of Grimes Creek for a balanced ecology with input from Trout Unlimited.

Oscar is survived by six children: Fred Baumhoff, Anna Baumhoff (Brian Goffin), Jill (Ray) Nebeker, Bruce (Stacey) Baumhoff, Ginger (Gared) Thomas, and Cini Baumhoff, all of Treasure Valley. Grandchildren include Vincent Baumhoff and Harmony (Aaron) Freter; Grant and Spencer Goffin; Josette (Kevin Brown), Mark, and Dennis Nebeker; Brittney (Dustin) Martin and Caleb (Whitney) Baumhoff; Alexander Williston; and Jamie Freeman (Michael). There are also nine great-grandchildren. Oscar is also survived by his brother, Wally Hamilton, nieces Roxanne (Jerry) Ohlund, and Sharon Hamilton.
