Horseshoe Bend Educators get Slimed for a Good Cause

By Tracy Koslosky
HORSESHOE BEND --

Horseshoe Bend School District Physical Education and Health teacher Jeff Longacre got students from kindergarten to 6th grade to get their hearts pumping during the American Heart Association's Kids

Heart Challenge. The students learned about healthy food and beverage choices, abstaining from vaping and using tobacco products and about physical as well as emotional wellness. The challenge portion pitted the classes against each other in a fundraising effort 3rd grader Trinity Catherman, left, chose to "slime" Instructional Aide Nick Gardner, center, during the American Heart Association's Kid's Heart Challenge on March 5. Junior Maggie Huston, right, helped with the "slime" procurement. The slime was a ghastly mixture of flour, water, oatmeal, applesauce, and green food coloring.

Library Fun In Garden Valley

By Marjolein Lolkema
Programs & Youth
Coordinator
Garden Valley District Library

GARDEN VALLEY -- Every Thursday morning at 10:30 a.m. StoryTime is held in the Garden Valley District Library. On Thursday Feb. 5, there was an extra special StoryTime. That day we celebrated "Read Across America Day," also known as "Dr. Seuss Day".

Read Across America Day is a yearly observance in the USA inaugurated by the NEA (National Education Association). It is held on the school day that is nearest to March 2, which was Dr. Seuss' birthday.

Theodor Seuss Geisel was an American artist, book publisher, animator, poet, and a political cartoonist, as well as an author. He is best known for authoring over sixty children's books.

Theodor Seuss Geisel also loved music; and therefore, the Garden Valley District Library invited the Garden Valley Ukulele group to perform during StoryTime. The kids, their moms, and grannies loved the music. One of the Ukulele ladies read aloud from the book ABC, written by Dr. Seuss. One of the letters was the "M" from Moon and that made the group play the "I don't want to live on the moon" song. Ernie from Sesame Street was singing the song and the ladies accompanied him musically with their ukuleles.

Afterwards, they read aloud from the book "Fox Found a Box" written by Ged Amson. The music party then continued on; the ukulele ladies played "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star" and kids joined in with hand bells! To conclude the fun StoryTime, kids colored a Seuss coloring page, and moms and grannies could make a very tiny, tiny ukulele.

Garden Valley Senior & Social Center News

By Candis Donicht

We cannot turn on the news, check our media newsfeeds, or read the paper without receiving updates on the Coronavirus, COVID-19. I decided to do informal research while working at Granny's on Saturday to see how our locals and visitors are responding to the situation.

I asked our customers (most local, some visiting from the Treasure Valley) what, if anything, they were doing to prepare for the possibility of the virus coming to Idaho.

A majority of respondents reported that they weren't doing anything differently, with the exception of increasing hand washing. Other respondents spoke about keeping their hands away from their faces and using some sanitizer although soup and water would be the first defense. Another local stated that he did not buy into the media hype, had lived a good life, and didn't worry if "his number came up." One aspiring comic responded that he liked his Corona with lime. Some people responded that they are stocking their pantries with canned goods, dry goods, and essential items that include toilet paper, soap and sanitizer.

While this approach to learning what the 25 people who came into Granny's are thinking was a good local sample, it surely isn't scientific research by any means. And you can see that the responses vary greatly.

One might come away with the message that Idahoans and Garden Valley residents do not panic but are instead self-reliant. There could be many reasons for that. We live in a sparsely populated area, where as senior citizens, we do not have to be in the presence of large crowds unless we choose to be. We already stock our pantries to some degree. Neighbors help each other in the midst of any crisis. We take care of family and friends.

If individuals are interested in what precautions can be taken, I learned that we can easily make our own hand sanitizer with alcohol, aloe vera, and essential oils. Face masks can be made. Water can be purified. Winter wood can be brought in early. Most pantry supplies remain available. A logical proactive measure might be that we stock for ourselves and put aside some for our families, our neighbors and the food bank. That's truly the Garden Valley spirit.

Nate Winman Represented Garden Valley in the State High School Wrestling Tournament

GARDEN VALLEY -- Nate Winman (sophomore) earned the right (after the 2AIII tournament in February in Garden Valley) to represent Garden Valley in the 2A138 State High School Tournament in Nampa on February 28, 2020.

The state tournament is a double elimination tournament. Nate wrestled in the 138 lb class and had a record of 14-14. Nate's first bout was against Trent Meyers (138 lbs: record of 56-4) of New Plymouth Idaho. Nate lost this bout by fall. Nate fared better in his second bout and made it into the second period. The score was 2-1 (Nate having 1) but then his opponent won by fall during the second period. This forced Nate out of the tournament after the second loss. The tournament continued on into Saturday, though Nate was no longer a participant. The winner of the State Tournament was Trent Meyers of New Plymouth Idaho.

Nate and his family stated that the tournament was a great experience and that they are grateful that he had this opportunity. Nate will continue training and hopefully return next year! Nate and his family wish to thank Coach Kyle Johnshoy and Coach Castillo for all the training and time spent with Nate and the other Garden Valley Wrestlers. They also wished to thank fellow Garden Valley wrestler, Cole Winslow, who practiced with Nate in preparation for the state tournament, even though he didn't qualify for state himself.

Garden Valley School has been very supportive of their champions. They held school rallies and send off parades for Nate and the varsity basketball team. Many attended these tournaments to support the students and a bus was provided to students who wished to travel to the basketball tournament. Even Garden Valley School Superintendent, Vickie Chandler attended the wrestling tournament.

It is obvious that Garden Valley fosters support of all the students and a level of inclusiveness that is very special and rare.

Basin Senior Center News:

What's going on at the Boise Basin Senior Center in Idaho City?

Many senior citizens and even those that aren't "seniors" are enjoying our meals here at the center in Idaho City on Tuesdays and Thursdays, as well as participating in and enjoying the socialization that takes place there.

We would like to introduce our Assistant Cook to those of you who have not had a chance to meet her. Her name is Sharon Jozwik. She has been with us for about six months and has been a great addition to our staff.

Sharon is a native Idaho-an, growing up and attending school in Garden Valley. She has had a wealth of experiences in kitchens even before she came to us. Her experience included being a Pastry Sous Chef at Boise Center on the Grove and a Pastry Chef at a 5-star restaurant in Eagle for 8 years.

Her responsibilities at the center include preparing our amazing salad bar as well as desserts. She surprises us on a regular basis with some great homemade desserts—bread pudding, monkey bread, chocolate cherry cupcakes (Valentine's Day special treat), pies, cakes, cookies, brownies, and other surprises.

Come join us for lunch any Tuesday or Thursday at 102 Bear Run Road. Doors open at 10:45 for homemade soup. The salad bar opens at 11:30 and the main meal is served at 12:00.

Upcoming events at the senior center include our 3rd annual Cinco De Mayo dinner that will be held on May 2nd. Tickets will go on sale soon.

Hope to see you soon—drop in and say hi to Sharon and see what surprises she has for us!

Horseshoe Bend's Appreciation for the Arts

Students from Horseshoe Bend Elementary are treated to a production by the Idaho Theater for Youth.

HORSESHOE BEND -- Since 1981 the Idaho Shakespeare Festival has provided educational programming with their Idaho Theater for Youth. Their productions bring a taste of the theater to students that might otherwise never experience it. Idaho Theater for Youth traveled to Horseshoe Bend on Thursday, March 5 and presented the elementary school with a production of Sword Song: A New Arthurian Legend by Dwayne Blackaller, a local Boise playwright. The play was made specifically for Idaho Youth Theater and is told from a young female's perspective. Blackaller took inspiration from real life events to tell the story of five girls from differing regions of the world that must unite to save the world. It sends a message is that no matter someone's age, they can effect changes in the world.

OBITUARY

Danny Lee McReynolds 1968 - 2020

Danny Lee McReynolds, 51 of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho passed away unexpectedly on Friday, February 28th, 2020 of a pedestrian versus car accident.

Danny was born on October 2nd, 1968 in Emmett, Idaho, son of the late Gary and Lucy McReynolds. He spent most his life in Horseshoe Bend. Danny worked many different jobs throughout his life from logging, bartending, warehouse associate, lead person, and Hub driver. His favorite job, though, was spending time with friends and family and spending time with his fur babies.

Danny was a lifelong 49ers fan and could tell you about any of the past and present players. He loved harassing people that tried to tell him anything different about them. He was so happy this year for his team making it to super bowl even though they didn't win. Danny was also a BSU fan and loved spending time with his in-laws and fighting over which players were the best and which ones would go on. He also liked watching the Lakers and WWE, but as time went on and the older people left, he watched them less and less. However, he still could tell you about each of the older wrestlers and basketball players. He also loved to go fishing and camping with anyone that would go with him. He loved taking kids fishing and had a blast helping them with their poles and didn't really care that he wasn't fishing.

Danny was the smartest person I had ever met. Math was his thing. You could give him the numbers out loud to figure out and he could have it figured out before you could write it down. He was very patriotic; he always had a flag out and if he found a hat or shirt with the flag on it, he would buy it for himself. He said he would have joined the military but had a bad knee and they wouldn't let him join. Danny never met a person he didn't like. Most folks that Danny met became lifelong friends. He would have given you the shirt off his back, even if it left him with nothing.

Danny had a daughter, but due to unfortunate circumstances, he never had the chance to meet her. He would have loved to have met her in his older years and never forgave himself for not being there for her. Danny is survived by his soulmate and wife Kerri McReynolds, siblings Bob Foster of Sweet Home, Oregon, Dottie Foster of Nampa, Idaho, Mary Jo Hanson of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, Jerry (Kavin) McReynolds of Boise, Idaho, and many nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephew, cousins, in-laws, and friends that loved him and will miss his loving smiles, laughs, and hugs.

Danny is preceded in death by father Gary McReynolds, mother Lucy McReynolds, and sister Sheila McReynolds.

Bogus Basin's Life Sports Program

By Christy Rousset

IDAHO CITY -- Basin School District took their annual field trip to Bogus Basin this month. Mrs. Wadley gathered up her 72 students from fourth to seventh grade to head to up to the slopes for an amazing day of skiing and snowboarding. Each year the students get to participate in Bogus' Life Sports program. This program offers the, students lift tickets, equipment rental, and lessons for each participant at a discounted rate. Students wait all year long to go on this highly coveted trip. Ashlyn Porter (seventh grader) feels that the best part of the trip is learning new skills that she can't do from home. She thinks that skiing will be something that she will continue on with for the rest of her life. Sean Rousset (fifth grader) and Rocco Olvera (sixth grader) enjoyed seeking out new jumps to improve their tricks on. The students also enjoyed learning and interacting with their instructors during their lessons. The students, teachers, and parent chaperones felt rewarded to have such a wonderful day of warm temperatures, sunny skies, and fun adventures.

GV Varsity Basketball Plays in State Tournament

By Jennifer Haney

GARDEN VALLEY -- The Garden Valley Wolverines boys varsity basketball fought hard and long and made it to the state (1 ADII) finals in Caldwell Idaho. However, this year, they were unable to advance further. The first game they played on March 5 was against the Lakeside Knights (the Lakeside Knights are from Plummer, Idaho). That game ended in a loss for the Wolverines with a final score of Garden Valley 69 to Lakeside 95. The Wolverines then played on March 6 against the Mackay Miners. This game was intense! The Wolverines blazed the lead after the 1st quarter with a score of Garden Valley 30 and Mackay 27. Half time continued to reflect the Wolverines ferocity with a continued lead and a score of Garden Valley 51 and Mackay 44. The Wolverines dominated the Miners in the first half and the Miners were underground! However, as miners are apt to do, Mackay dug themselves back out and by the end of the 3rd quarter were now in the lead with a score of Garden Valley 62 and Mackay 71! The Wolverines were not able to recover and lost the game with a final score of Garden Valley 80 to Mackay 96.

Though this was not the result that many Boise County folks were hoping for, the tournament continued without Garden Valley. The final game showcased another local school, Cascade! After winning their first two games, the Cascade Ramblers played the North Gem Cowboys (from Bancroft Idaho) on March 7th. Cascade won with a final score of Cascade 73 to North Gem 68! Congratulations and a job well done, Cascade!
