COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

By Eileen Capson

BOISE COUNTY -- County rivals, the Idaho City Wildcats, took on the Horseshoe Bend Mustangs at home on Tuesday night. The Wildcats led most of the game with the Mustangs close behind. The teams were tied up at the end of the fourth quarter, sending the game into overtime. The Mustangs were first to score, but the Wildcats followed with two consecutive free throw shots, bringing the score to an even 38 to 38. The Mustangs capitalized on one more free throw shot.

Trailing by just one point, with two seconds remaining in overtime, the Wildcats shot a free throw, after being fouled. The crowd hushed as the ball circled the rim and nearly went in the basket. However, it didn't fall in the hoop and the Horseshoe Bend Mustangs took the win with a score of 40 to 39 in Idaho City.

A very close missed free throw shot by Idaho City in overtime.

BOISE COUNTYBoise County Commissioners' MeetingTranscribed by Eileen Capson11-24-2020*Present: Commissioners Alan Ward and Ryan Stirm (Chairman)Absent: Commissioner Roger JacksonPledge of Allegiance*EXECUTIVE SESSION: Per Risk Management [Closed session 9:04 – 9:13am] No action required.EXECUTIVE SESSION: Per hiring an employee/ review of an application [Closed session 9:13 – 9:41am]. No motion necessary.CONSTITUENT INPUT: NoneMINUTES: NoneCLERK ELECTIONS GRANT/ SPENDING/ ETC: Clerk Mary Prisco presented Excel sheets and stated there were dollars for COVID-19 grant reimbursement from the Secretary of State's office in the amount of $28,520. She then said the total from the Secretary of State's office was $21,329 and the county match was $2,600, for a total of almost $24,000. The ability to receive reimbursement dollars from the state is almost $50,000. "Our piece [county's portion] would be the total of about $6,500. So, it's a good deal," said Clerk Prisco. Commissioner Ward agreed.

She continued: "With the General Election behind us, I feel strongly with the turnout that we had and the number of registered voters we now have, we're at a tipping point. We've always done paper ballots, paper count, but when your numbers start getting up there, you can no longer do it in an expedited way to count these ballots. My goal is to work the county towards a more auditing way of doing things." Chairman Stirm asked, "With Express Votes?" She said that was part of it. Clerk Prisco reviewed some different types of expenditures, like tabulators. She would like to get a total of five more Express Voting machines with grant money, and a trailer to carry all the elections equipment. They will need an additional scanner, and secure boxes, so there is no theft.

TREASURER: There was a discussion regarding a parcel that belonged to the "United States of America." Commissioner Ward asked why the federal government wanted private land, 68 acres. Assessor Chris Juszczak spoke saying that it was adjacent to federal ground, Forest Service Land. Commissioner Stirm made a motion to approve the tax cancellation for this parcel in the amount of $520. Commissioner Ward stated in discussion: "I just don't approve of the federal government buying property. It's off the tax rolls forever; I don't know what they could possibly need it for. The county, to my knowledge, the commissioners weren't made aware of it." There are no structures, it's steep in timber, and at the end of a road. Clerk Prisco asked if this was where Alamar had planned to go in and the Assessor said it was really close. Commissioner Ward asked if the sale was already agreed to, and Treasurer Gina Turner said "yes." He said that it was a tough one, but agreed to the tax cancellation.

EMERGENCY MANAGER: Bob Showalter stated that he now has in his office a count of 6,000 masks. He said some of the schools may be in need of disposable masks, so this will be brought up in next week's commissioners' meeting, to help supplement their supply. Showalter said he was surprised by the number of masks the schools had and thought they would have had more. Commissioner Ward stated: "I think it's more important that if there was a mask epidemic, sudden expansion, that they would know where they could get some." Emergency Manager Showalter said no one was ready for the pandemic, and he suggested the county have several thousand masks in reserve. Clerk Mary Prisco said what they need is to order more face shields. Showalter said he did have some and to let him know the number they want. Prosecutor Adam Strong added, "The county was allocated, I believe it's $193,000 of CARES funds that have to be used for care related expenditures. December 11th is our last day." Clerk Prisco said the county has spent about $80,000. Assessor Juszczak spoke concerning the recycled air in his office building and air quality. Chairman Stirm asked the emergency manager to get some numbers together for the next meeting, so that they could get an order together.

BILLS: Commissioner Ward motioned to pay the claims report dated 11/19/20 in the amount of $84,848, which passed.

DEMAND WARRANTS: Public defense, payee #4, in the amount of $7,537.50 for comprehensive legal services.

EMERGENCY MANAGER: Showalter said that he is still working on the Emergency Operations Plan, "which is huge." He's trying to work with all of the mayors of each of the cities.

SHERIFF: Scott Turner reported that nothing is slowing down.

PROSECUTOR: Adam Strong reported that they tried 1,200 cases last year and were going to more than double that - 2,500 by the end of the year.

Garden Valley Senior & Social Center News

By Cathy Garner

I hope everyone had a very HAPPY THANKSGIVING celebration. Now we are all busy trying to get our Christmas holiday planned and our homes ready. I love the busy holiday season!

As reported last week, due to the precautions around the COVID-19 Stage 2 status, the GV Senior Center will be closed to all social group gatherings until further notice. However, the office is still OPEN from 9 a.m. - Noon on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday each week. We are using this time to complete some projects so that when we safely reopen, we will be ready to operate at full speed. You are welcome to stop by and visit with us during these OPEN days/times.

Tuesday, December 8th, is our regularly scheduled monthly Board of Directors meeting at 9:30 a.m. As always, we invite our members to attend. However, because we are limited to gatherings of no more than 10 people, the in-person membership attendance will have to be extremely limited this month. Instead of the usual in-person membership attendance, we are offering an online meeting option for a limited number of member attendees. If you are interested, please contact us!

Please keep checking our website for updates: <https://www.gvseniorcenter.org> or call us at (208) 462-3943.

FINDING HOPE AND FULFILLMENT

By Marlene Partridge

GARDEN VALLEY -- The papers have been signed, and the property on Middlefork Road, former site of Valley Country Store, now belongs to Brian Hudes.

Known to Garden Valley charity workers as "Brian-will-do-it," it may be surprising to some that he had previously led a much different life. Before coming to Garden Valley, he obtained two degrees from the University of California, San Francisco, and went to work for a competitive company as a financial consultant.

However, as the stress began to mount and wear on him, he began drinking alcohol excessively. Brian didn't like the person he was becoming, and one day, he had an epiphany. He suddenly knew what he wanted; a totally different life. He wanted a life that was almost the exact opposite of the one he had worked for so many years to obtain. He no longer wanted to live an intellectual or materialist-based life. He wanted a life that was closer to nature, closer to God, and to work with his hands and body instead of solely with his intellect, focusing only on monetary rewards.

Having little idea of what he wanted to do, he somehow knew he wanted to live in Garden Valley, as soon as he saw it. He knew he wanted to serve others, and he bought a house with a wood-working shop already in place. Brian had never studied wood-working, but he soon proved himself to be a craftsman. At one of his volunteer gigs, he built a fabulous check-out station and a log bench that is now the showpiece of the store where he works.

He said he wouldn't be where he is in his craft if it weren't for several mentors. "Without them, I would have taken much longer to learn. My life has meaning and purpose now. I want to serve God."

Brian reflected, "I think the majority of people do believe in some sort of higher power, who cares about mankind and who is pleased when He sees us doing good. I want to be one of those that please Him." He added, "When I wake up in the morning and I look in the mirror now, I see someone who works hard to help people and to do my work to the height of my ability. I help a lot of people, now, and I think it is pleasing to God."

Brian Hudes' new business, Garden Valley Rustics, is built on solid craftsmanship, with a traditional, classic feel. He uses a lot of reclaimed wood, because he loves being able to give it another chance, just as Garden Valley has given him a second chance to define who he is.

A few of his pieces are on display at a local thrift store and at Melodee Low's gift shop across the street. Brian Hudes works mostly by contract. If you have a design, or even an idea, it may be possible that Brian could build it for you.

Idaho Humanities Council invites applications for Major Grants

BOISE COUNTY -- The Idaho Humanities Council invites major grant applications supporting projects involving Idaho citizens that focus on literature, history, philosophy, art history, archaeology, and other humanities disciplines. The Council further invites applications that encourage participation from all of Idaho's diverse populations and reach out to under-served audiences. As Idaho continues to be affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, we ask all grant applications to adhere to local health guidelines with in-person programming.

Major Grants are for projects seeking funding over $1,000. Initial applications are due December 15. IHC staff will review these initial applications and respond with recommendations. Final applications will then be due on January 15. Grants over the years have supported museum and library exhibits, oral history projects, heritage tourism projects, literary events, special lectures, the preservation of historical photo archives, community-wide reading programs, humanities-focused conferences, and a variety of projects and programs that inspire community dialogue in the humanities.

Grant guidelines to the on-line grant application are available on the IHC website: www.idahohumanities.org under "Grants." The website also includes a listing of recent grant awards and other general information. Notice of decisions for major grants will be emailed after March 1.

The Idaho Humanities Council is a non-profit organization serving as the state-based partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities, dedicated to promoting public understanding and lifelong learning through literature, history, philosophy, law, anthropology, and other humanities disciplines in Idaho.
