Happy Birthday to Roger Jackson

Roger was born December 31, 1940, exactly one year after the birth of his brother, Fred, who died in childbirth. His parents were Edna (Hill) Jackson and Leslie Daniel Jackson. He has one sister, Barbara, who was born on February 23, 1949. At one time, his parents owned and operated the Idaho City Hotel which later burned down. In the 1950's they built Jackson's Motel and Cafe on the corner of Main and Walulla Streets in the building which is now an antique store.

Roger had a typical childhood in Idaho City. He had a reputation for being a bit of a rascal and would always run around with his friend, Denny Earl. He attended the Idaho City grade school, which was built in the 1800's and now serves as the Idaho City Hall. After the eighth grade he rode the bus daily to attend East Junior High School and then Boise High School. At East, he made friends with the custodian, who would let him into the school so he didn't have to wait outside for class to begin after being left off by the bus. He also developed a friendship with the ladies who served lunch at the cafeteria so he got extra servings and desserts. He was a charmer. He was always athletic and participated in track events at the County track meets and at East. He graduated from Boise High School in 1959.

During the summer, the family would hook up the boat and head up to Deadwood Reservoir and Bear Valley and camp out.

Roger has always loved the great outdoors. He would fish and hunt whenever he could and in the winter helped his dad with his trap line. He later went out on his own, trapping beaver, muskrats, bobcats, foxes, mink, and marten. The extra money always came in handy.

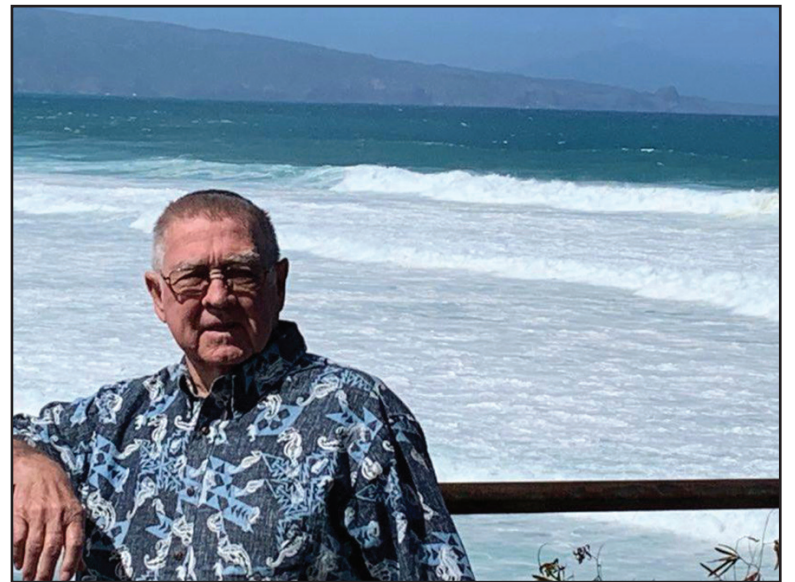

He was a good shot and always got a deer and elk to fill the freezer. He reloaded his own shells as it was cheaper than buying ammunition. He also hunted pheasants, grouse, and ducks. He still goes out on his birthday to hunt chukar. He belonged to the Ponderosa Gun Club and traveled to Boise once a week to shoot with his team. At the time, there were turkey shoots at various places around Boise County and he usually came home with a turkey or two. In 1959, he married Kay McCreath. They were married for twenty years and had two daughters, Deborah Louann and Trudy Lynn. He has four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Roger has always worked in the woods. His first job was as a faller for Boise Cascade and other logging companies. Later, he bought and operated his own equipment and started Jackson Logging. In 1989, he was nearly killed when his logging truck was involved in an accident. Todd Niehoff and James Pasley went to work for him. At this time, Roger and Todd operate a firewood yard in Idaho City.

He later married Janet Pasley, who passed away in 2004. Janet had two children, Michelle and James. This family includes five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Roger has always been involved in serving the community in various positions. He has been a member of the Basin 72 School Board, a member of the City Council for many years, and the Mayor of Happy 80th Birthday on December 31, 2020!

Idaho City and Commissioner for Boise County. For many years, he was a member of the volunteer fire department. In these positions, he has always worked to improve the County and local community.

While sitting around visiting this Christmas, Debi and Trudy reminisced with their Dad about trapping in Bear Valley with him, Mom, Les and Edna. Grandma Edna and Mom did the cooking while the others ran the trap line. Debi and Trudy would hoard their Halloween candy to eat on the trip. Debi remembers her Dad showing her how to set her first trap and finding a marten in it the next morning. Bear Valley was a special place for us every winter.

Roger remembers one day hauling logs up Hilltop in his truck while a bicyclist passed him. Needless to say, he bought a newer, more powerful truck and he never got passed by a bicycle on the Hilltop slope again. Kay remembered that it got so hot in the cab of the trucks as they climbed the hill, the drivers would open the door and stand on the running board.

The grandkids enjoy all of grandpa's stories about the "old days." Grandson Bryce is keeping up the tradition of trapping and hunting.

We all love you, Roger! Happy 80th birthday!

Filling the Needs at the Idaho City Senior Center

By Lori Corbett, Boise Basin Senior Center Director

IDAHO CITY -- As of Friday, December 18th, the Food Pantry shelves at the Boise Basin Senior Center were sparse. The Idaho Food Bank has struggled to keep Idahoans fed this year. The number of persons serviced statewide has increased significantly since the arrival of COVID-19. Prior to March 2020, the Boise Basin Food Pantry did not have difficulties supplying food to our community. Today it is a struggle.

We made the ask of our community and you responded. A big "shout-out" to Trudy Jackson, Wayne Bushnell, Kay Jackson, Ken Couch, and the Boise Snowmobile Club. They arrived on Monday the 22nd with truckloads of food to complement our "haul" from the Idaho Food Bank. (Idaho Food Bank remains at critical level, currently supplying an average of 15% of our shelving needs) A warm thank you to all of you who support our feeding program throughout the year. We would not have made it this far without your generosity.

The Idaho City Food Pantry distribution held on Wednesday, December 23rd provided daily food needs and included a holiday dinner for our patrons. The Food Pantry served 46 families and approximately 90 individuals.

For additional information regarding our feeding program please contact us:

The cupboards were bare at the Boise Basin Senior Center, with Christmas looming close at hand. The word went out that there was a need. Fulfilling the wish, several organizations and a few local generous people helped to make the season bright.

Special gifts went out on December 23rd that included warm socks and a blanket. Pictured is Boise Basin Senior Center Director Lori Corbett and Mr. & Mrs. Claus.

Special Donations from NXEdge in Boise

Shots Fired in Clear Creek, Sheriff's Deputies Responded

CLEAR CREEK -- Boise County law enforcement responded to a situation in Clear Creek on November 20th. It was heard over the scanner that multiple Boise County Deputies were called in to assist. There were three shots fired by the individual that did not seem to be in the direction of officers. The individual may have requested cigarettes be brought to him and Idaho City Ambulance responded to that request. A S.W.A.T. team from Boise was also en route; however, following that news, radio traffic went quiet.

Boise County Sheriff Scott Turner assured that more information would be made available when ISP finished their investigation.

The Boise County Sheriff's Office recently released this information: "Deputy's responded to a report of a shots fired call in the Clear creek area. After initial contact was made, and the suspect was identified, it was discovered that the suspect had a felony warrant for his arrest. The suspect then barricaded himself inside a shop. Several other deputies were dispatched to the scene. After several hours of negotiations the suspect took his own life."

Bikes for Books

By Tracy Koslosky

HORSESHOE BEND --

The Placer Lodge of Horseshoe Bend (part of the Grand Lodge of Idaho Ancient Free and Accepted Masons) kept their promise to deliver bicycles to three deserving students from Horseshoe Bend Elementary School. In its 9th year, the Placer Lodge's Bikes For Books Program awards new bicycles to students while encouraging them to read for success. Students who meet their Accelerated Reading (AR) goal are entered into the twice-a-year drawing in December and May. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the drawing was done without the usual assembly for the students with members of the Placer Lodge in attendance. This December's K-1 winner was First grader Niya Norton (left). The

2-3 winner was second grader Tyson Proctor (right) and the 4-5 winner was fourth grader Kimber Poser (center). Each student will receive a certificate which is redeemable for the bike of their choice at the Meridian Walmart.

BOISE COUNTY

OBITUARY

Grace Elizabeth Hawkins
1927 - 2020

Grace Elizabeth Hawkins, a life-long resident of Horseshoe Bend, passed away at 93 at a local care center following a recent fall at her home. She was the youngest of four children born to Robert R. and Francis E. (Stone) Bowers.

Grace married Neal E. Hawkins on June 2, 1946, shortly after his return from Army service in Europe during WWII. She and Neal had three sons - Jim, Terry, and Randy - and took great pride in the fact that all three graduated from the University of Idaho without either they or their boys accumulating any student debt. This was no small feat given that Dad spent his working career at Hoff Lumber/Boise Cascade's local sawmill.

While primarily a homemaker/stay-at-home mom, Grace faithfully served as the secretary of Horseshoe Bend's Pioneer Cemetery for over thirty years, retiring only when Dad could no longer drive her to fulfill her duties. She was a Cub Scout Den Mother and supported her boys' 4-H livestock projects. She also taught sewing as a 4-H leader and volunteered at the local library where her favorite job was reading stories to the community's young children.

Mom loved to be outside flower gardening and was also an accomplished seamstress, a prolific crocheter of doilies, and a quilter. Her loving care for Dad in his last years allowed him to stay at home until his death in 2017 at age 95. Theirs was a 70-year marriage, and Mom missed him every day since his passing. Grace Hawkins was also preceded in death by her parents and brothers, Robert, Richard, and Frank Bowers. She is survived by sons Jim (Tina), Terry (Debbie), and Randy (Kathleen), as well as seven grandchildren, 29 great grandchildren, and one great-great granddaughter. She is additionally survived by Barbara Hawkins, a former daughter-in-law who was loved as a daughter.

The family would also like to acknowledge Staci Lane for the care, compassion, and companionship she provided both Mom and Dad.

Arrangements are under the care and direction of Potter Funeral Chapel, Emmett.

Condolences can be shared and the Life Sketch viewed at potterchapel.com A private family viewing will take place prior to interment at the Pioneer Cemetery in Horseshoe Bend. A public memorial service will be held this spring when it is safe to gather and travel.

Idaho Fish & Game

Buy your 2021 hunting and fishing licenses now, and read below how to use them immediately

A 2021 resident Sportsman's Package is as low as $124.25 and gives you almost all of Idaho's hunting and fishing opportunities

You need a new hunting and fishing license before your first outing of 2021. You could procrastinate, then run around looking for an open store to buy a hunting or fishing license because you're leaving early for your first trip, or you could buy it right away and have peace of mind, as well as a full year of hunting and fishing.

If you buy immediately, you can also take advantage of some great hunting and opportunities right now, such as:

Ice fishing

Ice fishing is fun, and a great way to get out of the house and catch some fish during winter.

Steelhead fishing continues

Idaho's "spring" season opens Jan. 1, and you can catch this prized fish throughout winter and well into spring. See the current steelhead fishing rules.

You can still catch trout in rivers and streams

Winter stream fishing is often an overlooked opportunity, but trout fishing can be good, especially in "tailwater" fisheries where rivers are fed by dam releases, or in parts of the state with mild climates, such as along the Snake River.

One of the best times to catch whitefish

Another winter fishery that fly anglers and many other anglers. These fish feed in riffles and aren't fazed by the cold water, and they're often schooled up during winter.

Hunt game animals that you may have overlooked

The hunting season for cottontail rabbits, snowshoe hares, and red squirrels lasts through March 31, so if you want to keep hunting, you have those options, and you probably won't have a lot of competition.

Late season upland bird hunting continues

Hunting season remains open for chukar, Hungarian partridge, California quail, and forest grouse during January in most areas, and late-season hunting can be good for those birds. See the upland game bird rules booklet for season dates.

You can still bag a turkey in Northern Idaho

For 2021, the general fall turkey season in Fish and Game's Panhandle Region runs through the end of January. If you didn't get your fill of turkey over the last couple months of 2020, you still have a chance to put a wild one on the dinner table before the spring seasons kick off again in April. Keep in mind that 2020 turkey tags also expire on Dec. 31, so you'll need to purchase 2021 turkey tags for the new year. See the upland game bird rules booklet for more information.

Hunt for large predators

Mountain lion and wolf hunting seasons are open during winter depending on location. See big game hunting rules for specific seasons.
