The City of Crouch is Growing and Adding Resort Property

Written by Janet Juroch

CROUCH -- The City of Crouch Council Meeting on February 10, 2021, included a Public Hearing at the beginning. Some specific topics are continually being explored, including how COVID-19 is still affecting the area. Only a handful of people were in attendance.

The public hearing topic was on annexing in property that is south of Banks Lowman Highway and at the intersection with the Middlefork Rd. The property is known as the Edge Resort and is owned by Tim Fritzley. This property consists of 28 acres with 2,500 feet of river frontage. There are different phases of construction, planned for the future, including 59 oversized RV lots for sale with full utilities, two upscale bathhouses, other outdoor structures, and casitas for outdoor BBQing. There is a plan for 106 Condos from sizes of 900 to over 2,000 sq ft and different location preferences. The plan for the condos is to have 16 on the riverfront, 60 on the pond and 30 with elevated overviews.

Other amenities include a recreation area and facilities, a pool, hot tubs, and activity courts. There are plans for a 5,000 sq. ft. Pub/Restaurant facility, a 5,000 sq. ft. Event Center, a gas station, and C-Store.

All this will include a wastewater treatment plant and potable water. Permitting processes have taken several years. Construction should begin soon. The City Council listened to the presentation at the Public Hearing and felt this would complement the area and potentially create more revenue for the city itself. There will be an increase in employment opportunities as well.

Fritzley has been working with the Army Corp of Engineers and Department of Environmental Quality to allow for construction along the river. The Resort will start the first phase this summer and create the RV lot site prep, infrastructure, and recreation facilities. This will be Phase 1 Spring 2021. By late Summer/Fall of 2021 there are plans to start the Gas Station/C-Store. Phase 2 Spring 2022 will be Condo construction. Phase 2A Summer/Fall 2022 is planned construction of the Pub/Restaurant. Phase 2B Spring 2023 will be the Event Center construction. Fritzley has an aggressive building plan but knows “weather permitting” can be the impacting phrase to everything being completed.

The Public Hearing was to inform the public of the zoning of the property to be Community Commercial. This will allow for the resort construction phases to move forward as they stand. A Conditional Use Permit may come to play if there is construction of something that does not fit into zoning description. This would require additional Public Hearings. There are pictures and more information from the presentation in City Hall. Fritzley welcomes questions and invites people to come to the site. He will be able to answer questions, in more detail, regarding the plans or phases moving forward. He is often at the property site.

At the regular council meeting, the Mayor Robert Powell gave COVID-19 updates for the area and Boise County. He is often on the Governor’s call and Central District Health information calls to follow the latest updates. Mayor Powell explained that Central District Health (CDH) is working through some questions about Boise County dose allocation and vaccination capacity for the county. Clinics are being set up throughout the county as vaccines is available. Some people have received their first dose already. Mayor Powell said he learned through these meetings that “case counts are dropping per week from 3 to 2. Boise County schools moved into the green category (at a rate of 4.56/100k) as of recently.”

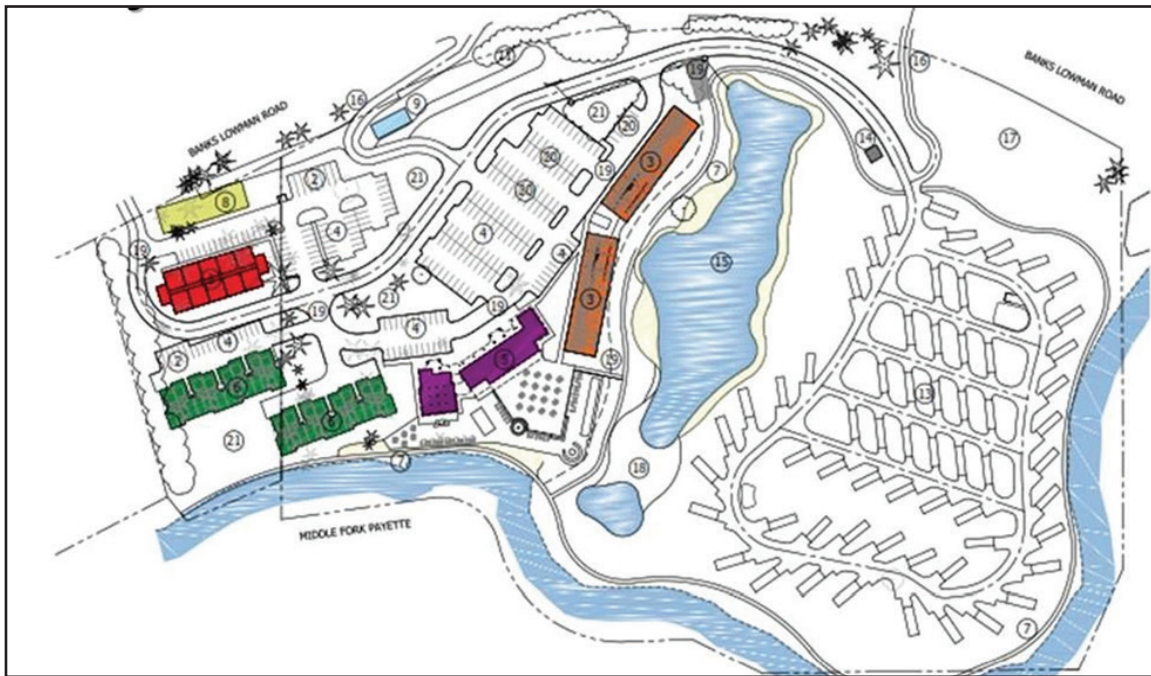

Masks are still required but

Governor Little allows for event capacity to reach 50 people. As part of the Governor’s move to Stage 3, he announced the use of an “attestation form” for events/gatherings larger than 50. Large events to be held in Boise, Elmore, and Valley Counties should submit this form to CDH at least two weeks prior to their event. Ada county is currently excluded, at this time, since the CDH public health order remains in place, limiting gathering sizes to no more than 10. This form is on their website.

Due to less restrictive orders around gatherings, the open office hours at City Hall are Tuesday through Thursday from 10am to 2pm. Face mask is still required as per Governor Little’s mandate. Please call 208-462-4687 for appointments needed during closed hours. City Hall will not have information on county matters or Weilmunster Park rental information. The Community Hall is now available for rental for a capacity of 50 people or less.

Site Plan that cover 28 acres of resort property.

Garden Valley Senior & Social Center News

By Cathy Garner

First, let me remind everyone that this is the 3rd week in February and on THURSDAY, February 18th, from 10 a.m. - 12 noon we are distributing Food Boxes again. In January, we were able to serve 88 households, providing food security for 74 seniors, 68 children, and 58 adults! We love serving our community this way. If you or someone you know needs a food box, hurry and let us know so that we can have your box(es) packed and ready to go. If you can come pick them up, it would be very helpful. We have a very tiny volunteer group that unloads the food and delivers the food boxes and could really use some help in that area. CONTACT US by phone (208) 462-3943, email: info@gvsc-seniorcenter.org, website: www.gvscseniorcenter.org, or stop by the Center on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 9 a.m. - 12 noon.

Secondly, have you ever wondered how the Garden Valley Senior Center got its start and evolved to who we are today? We have the current Board of Directors and I think most people living in the Garden Valley area today might be interested in knowing its history. Recently, while cleaning out the GVSC attic, we ran across some old documentation that is helping us piece together that puzzle and we wanted to share it with you in a series of GVSC history articles in the coming weeks.

I am starting these history tidbits with the following treasured article that documents the beginning of the GVSC story; and fits in with the pictures of our 2020 Talent Show as it was conducted in the Crouch Community Hall which was originally renovated by the Senior Citizens organization who started these Talent Shows. If you have lived here since the 1980's - 1990's, you may recognize the names of those GVSC pioneers.

GARDEN VALLEY SENIOR CITIZENS HALL BY MARIE BARBER

In January of 1987, a meeting was held at the home of Earleen Denton. Twenty people met to talk over things to do socially for the young and old of our community. Olive Huston volunteered for the older citizens and subsequently started the Senior Citizens organization. It was snowing and raining when she went around putting up signs all over the valley and she wasn't sure anyone would show up. Fifteen arrived the first Saturday. They met once a month in the Home Economics room. In the beginning, Olive Huston prepared the meals at home and brought them down in her car to the school. For one year they met here while they searched for a location to permanently house the seniors. Huston found out they were going to burn down or destroy the community hall in Crouch, because it was deteriorating. She went to the town meeting in Crouch and asked if the seniors could lease the building. She kept going back until they said "YES". Olive Huston then became coordinator, cook, and chairman of the board. Because there was no kitchen in the building, Rolla Briggs, at one time, prepared meals at his restaurant and brought them to the hall. By now the meetings were held once a week.

During all of this time volunteers jacked up the building on one corner and reinforced the flooring, put on siding, worked on bathrooms, and built a kitchen (which had been partially started). All of this work and all of the materials were donated by senior citizens. They have since added on a side porch, re-done the front porch, put on a new roof, and paneled the interior.

At one time they rented the hall to the children for skating ($5.00 per hour rental) once a week.

Community plays were produced. Talent shows, dances, community feeds were a few of the fundraising activities that helped raise money to continue the improvement of this historic building.

Olive and Ray Huston found an oil burning heater that was donated by Boise Cascade and brought it up. Volunteers helped install it. It served as the heating system for several years. It was fueled by used motor oil that was donated. After a few years a new propane heating system replaced the oil unit partly financed by the Idaho Power Company employees of Emmett.

All of the original stoves, freezers, refrigerators, and kitchen tools were donated by local citizens. After attending Boise Cascade meetings for several years, Olive Huston was able to, each year, get a donation of some kind to improve the facilities. $500.00 for new refrigerator and freezer. The stoves, sinks, coffee pots, microwave, extra pots, and pans were all donated by local citizens.

Prior to the origination of the Senior Citizens group, Larry Barnes' mother said "If you can get an organization started I will help you." So the origination money was a $200.00 donation from this gracious lady.

The first stage curtains were made by Olive Huston and Wilma Hutchison. The present curtains were purchased from proceeds of a quilt raffle (the quilt being made by senior ladies.) Currently the Annual Quilt Show raises money for improvements. Some interesting money raisers were the sale of bonnets made by the women during the bi-centennial, a tour of interesting Valley homes, community breakfasts, and yard sales.

The hall is open to fundraisers for community people, memorials, anniversary parties, wedding receptions, disaster center meetings, and dances.

The Seniors love our old hall and hope the community will see it as part of their heritage from the past brought into use for now and the future.

BOISE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Transcribed by Eileen Capson

2/9/2021

Present: Commissioners Ryan Stirm, Steve Twilegar, Ted Holmes

Pledge of Allegiance

EXECUTIVE SESSION: Per hiring an employee and personnel. [Closed session. Time 9:02 am to 9:40 am] No motion or action required.

CONSTITUENT INPUT: Bob Showalter explained that his wife, Annette, had suggested and researched a "Second Amendment Sanctuary County." He took a resolution from another county and modified it to fit Boise County, and then sent that draft to the former commissioners, Commissioner Stirm, and the prosecutor. "I believe this is an important topic for discussion, Democrats are already making a move to regulate and impose fees, and restrict some Americans who have not broken any laws." He added that this would be a symbolic move and would send a message "to those moving to our county, that we support our Constitution and our right to bear arms. I'm glad to see that this topic is on the agenda today and I encourage you to support it."

MINUTES: The official meeting minutes from February 2nd were approved.

SENATE BILL 1048: Capping the annual property tax budget by three or four percent. Clerk Mary Prisco said it was going to have quite an impact on the counties and other taxing districts in our state. She recommended that they reach out to Senator Thayne and others to "let them know this could have a hugely detrimental impact on our county, all of our counties, potentially."

Commissioner Stirm recapped: "Anyone who's not aware, Senator Rice is trying to sponsor a House Bill 1048 which would limit the amount of money that could be property tax levied every year, as an increase, and it would also change the way the formula works for property tax for new construction." He recounted that Boise County is growing about 10% a year, "We could potentially lose out on seven or eight percent of that money, or more on that new construction." There is a concern for services with a lack of funding, like additional law enforcement.

Prosecutor Strong stated: "I think we have the lowest, or second lowest, levy rate in the State of Idaho, out of all the counties."

Assessor Chris Juszczak

warned regarding the taxes for new construction, "That's a lot of money that we're being limited on to provide services."

BOISE COUNTY DMV: Chairman Stirm let the board know, "In Idaho City, in all of January, 69 driver's licenses were printed for residents and 50 driver's licenses were printed for nonresidents." He said it was similar for Horseshoe Bend with 83 for residents and 63 for nonresidents. Stirm said,

"To clarify why that's an issue, our tax dollars here in Boise County, property tax dollars, are paying those people's salaries and we're not being reimbursed by the state like the plan was originally to fully fund those offices."

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY: Treasurer Gina Turner presented information regarding unclaimed property and claiming it on behalf of the

Rollover on the Ranch

WRVFD Chief Colton McCarthy EAST BOISE COUNTY --

We had a fire department training on Thursday night. During training, Chuck Stamm, one of our firefighters stepped out for a moment and heard some honking down the road. When he went to investigate, he found a car on its side just down the road from the station. The driver was still in the vehicle which was precariously teetering on the edge of a cliff. Below it was about a 40 foot drop through rocks and trees down into Daggett Creek. The car was right on the edge of the cliff. We temporarily stabilized it with the winch on our command vehicle until our extrication vehicle arrived on scene. Once it arrived, firefighters were able to finish stabilizing the vehicle and get the driver out safely.

Virtual StoryTime at the library

GARDEN VALLEY, Idaho -- StoryTime is an early literacy program held by the Garden Valley District Library weekly on Thursday morning. Because of COVID-19, Story Time is now held virtually, live via Facebook. Despite StoryTime running virtually, it still features music, stories, crafts, and more.

Why is StoryTime so important? Telling stories, singing songs, and saying rhymes together are great activities for early literacy skills -- and your child will probably have a lot of fun at the same time. Your child will learn words and develop language skills from the songs, stories, and conversations you share together.

Sharing stories, talking, and singing every day helps your child's development in many ways.

Reading and sharing stories can:

- help your child get to know sounds, words, and language, and develop early literacy skills
- learn to value books and stories
- spark your child's imagination and stimulate curiosity
- help develop your child's brain, ability to focus, concentration, social skills, and communication skills
- help your child learn the difference between 'real' and 'make-believe'
- help your child understand new or frightening events, and the strong emotions that come with them
- help your child learn about the world, their own culture, and other cultures.

Reading stories with children has benefits for grown-ups too. The special time you spend reading together promotes bonding and helps to build your relationship with your child.

You can start reading aloud to your baby as early as you like -- the earlier the better. Your baby will love being held in your arms, listening to your voice, hearing rhyme and rhythm, and looking at pictures. Do you know that you can find a special baby books collection in the Garden Valley District Library?

Every Thursday morning at 10:30 am this library is holding Storytime virtually. We do songs, reading, and every week there is a craft. About 30 minutes after Storytime has ended, Storytime-craft bags are available in the library, for free. You can grab it (as long as supplies last), go home, and make the Storytime craft together.

To watch StoryTime, visit: <https://www.facebook.com/mountainlibrary>

BOISE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' MEETING

county. Commissioner Stirm made a motion to approve the letter authorizing the treasurer to the state of Idaho on behalf any Boise County department.

BOISE RIDGE RIDERS: An agreement was approved between law enforcement and the Ridge Riders for their mass gathering event, Idaho City 100 Enduro on June 5 and 6.

POLLING PLACE: Stirm motioned to approve a polling place at the Mutual Improvement Lady's auxiliary building in Horseshoe Bend and the absentee precinct at the Boise County Recorder's Office.

CLAIMS: Chairman Stirm made a motion to pay the claims report for February 5 in the amount of $84,242.40.

SECOND AMENDMENT SACTUARY COUNTY RES-

OLUTION INTRODUCTION: Commissioner Stirm said they were going to postpone that discussion until next week. Commissioner Twilegar will present that proposed resolution, and commented that the city [Idaho City] is considering it too.

AVIMOR: The proposed subdivision development, Avimor, was summarized by a representative. This subdivision is planned to span three counties. The Ada County portion has been developed, and the Boise County portion measures 23,000 acres. They would like to eventually be incorporated into the city of Eagle. They have not yet started building in Gem County. The planned community is going to have an onsite first medical responder truck or two trucks. Prosecutor Strong stated that they would be within the Eagle Fire Taxing District, which extends across county lines. Law enforcement would likely also contract through the city of Eagle. The children would attend school in the Horseshoe Bend School District. They have discussed this with the school district, and if it became necessary, they would donate land to build another school.

Prosecutor Adam Strong stated that because it was such a large review, they have brought in an outside attorney. Avimor has set up a trust account with the county to pay for attorney review costs.

The representative closed by saying the Avimor project is expected to create significant revenue, adding, "by the 2049, Boise County will be receiving approximately $4.1 million dollars annually in property tax revenue." They are going to have small patches of commercial businesses at that site. "Over the next 30 years, Boise County can expect to receive approximately a total of $71 million dollars in taxes."

Ground has not broken for Boise County yet, but they are planning roads and culverts at this time.

MIDDLEFORK ROAD/MIDDLE FORK RIVER: A gentleman explained, "Last summer in 2020 was the worst I've ever seen, where people are coming from out of town and they're parking on people's private property. They're damaging people's property. People are being threatened with physical violence." He said people were parking ten to fifteen cars in these locations on private property that is clearly marked. People are even taking out gates and crawling through holes in barbed wire. "There are just so many examples of property damage." He spoke with some local towing companies and they recommended that if there was an ordinance and signs posted for private property, no river access, and that violator would be towed, could solve the problem. Boise County would get the license from the tow truck driver, a number would be on the sign for the individuals to get their vehicle back, and the Sheriff's office could send them a citation in the mail.

The prosecutor will do some research and this topic will be placed on the agend in two weeks.

He is survived by his siblings Becky, Liz, and Steve as well as his children Taylor and Zachary and grandchildren Olivia and Keyfer. He is proceeded in death by his parents, brother Phil, and daughter Makayla.

Dan was passionate about heavy equipment since he was a young boy and could operate it with extreme skill. He was an entrepreneur his entire life and ran several businesses, including an underground contracting company called "Mayse Construction" which landed him the award of Underground Contractor of the year in the 80s in San Jose, California.

He also owned and ran a cattle ranch for some time and absolutely loved it.

He drove the school bus from Lowman to Garden Valley daily for the last 8 years and always was ready to drive the kids to sporting events. He was very passionate about deep sea fishing, hunting, and being outdoors, and loved his home here in Garden Valley. He loved music, Elvis was his favorite. A memorial gathering was held for local veteran and all around good guy, Jim White on Saturday at the Boise Basin Senior Center. During his time in Idaho City, Jim spent many hours volunteering his time at the senior center and was also a very active member of VFW Post 142. The Commander of the Post said, "Along with family and friends, I was honored to attend Jim's Memorial and help represent his VFW Post 142. He was a long-time and active member of our post, and being a Marine born on the Marine Corps birthday, he made his presence that much more special. He will be missed!"

Idaho City Community Club Sends Love

By Georgene Thomas

IDAHO CITY -- Members of Idaho City Community Club made "goody plates" and distributed them throughout Idaho City. These were given to local offices and businesses to say "Thank You" for supporting the community.

Previously, Idaho City Community club held Valentine Tea's which were held at the City or County offices for local patrons. Over the years, participation waned and it became more difficult to coordinate these.

So a decision was made to give out "goody plates" as a Valentine greeting.

Photos submitted by Georgene Thomas and Rora Canody

Georgene Thomas helped out with the delectable homemade goodies. Idaho City has been helping the community and high school seniors with scholarships for over 50 years!

Rora Canody, Idaho City Community President, holds a goody plate to give out for Valentine's Day.
