Christmas Celebration in Idaho City

Photos by Eileen Capson

The Idaho City Tree Lighting and Christmas celebration on December 17th was a big success! Santa arrived by the Idaho City ladder truck with lights and sirens. There were carols sung and hot chocolate to drink. Special thanks to the sponsors that made it possible for the community to come together and celebrate Christmas. Supporters included: Daniel and Laura Shields - Fire Barrels, Hank Elliott Excavation and Snow Removal by Hank and Ashley Elliott, Heart of the Mountain Daycare - Matt and Ashley Elliott, Nelson Custom Milling- Jess and Sarah Nelson, Seasons- Doug Pottenger, the Sarsaparilla, and Rhonda Jameson with Simply Fun.

Masons' Bikes for Reading

By Tracy Koslosky
HORSESHOE BEND
-- The Placer Lodge of Horseshoe Bend (part of the Grand Lodge of Idaho Ancient Free and Accepted Masons) played Santa Claus to three deserving students from Horseshoe Bend Elementary School. In its 10th year, the Placer Lodge's Bikes For Books Program awards new bicycles to students while encouraging them to read for success. Students who meet their Accelerated Reading (AR) goal are entered into the twice-a-year drawing in December and May. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the drawing was done without the usual assembly of students with members of the Placer Lodge in attendance. This December's K-1st winner was kindergartener Maddie Bard (left). The 2nd-3rd winner was second grader Melody Bennett (center) and the 4th-5th winner was fifth grader Tiffany Sampont (right). Each student will receive a certificate which is redeemable for the bike of their choice at a local Walmart.

Lowman Potato Feed and Christmas Fun

LOWMAN -- The annual Potato Feed and community carol singing was held on the evening of December 15th at the Lowman Community Church. Though the virus impacted the number of participants, many still came out to enjoy the food and festivities. The Lowman Elementary School children provided Christmas carols while community members dined. This is an annual event has been an ongoing tradition for over twenty years.

Horseshoe Bend School Christmas Follies

By Tracy Koslosky

HORSESHOE BEND --

The Horseshoe Bend High School Student Council held their first annual Christmas Follies event on the last day of school before the winter break. Part variety show and part game show, the middle and high school students were treated to student juggling, line dancing, a whipped cream and marshmallow Santa Claus beard race, singing, cheesy dad jokes, a build your own reindeer antler race, student art presentation, and a Roblox Ro-beats Rhythm Gaming Demonstration. All audience members and participants were entered into a raffle for a chance to win prizes.

Grades 6-12 at Horseshoe Bend School District try to make marshmallow beards during the 1st Annual HSB Christmas Follies. The Sophomore class took first place honors.

It's time to string bulbs and decorate the house with lights. The Idaho City Community Club will be driving around to judge residential homes for their annual Christmas Lighting Contest. Be sure to keep your lights glowing between December 12th and the 24th. The first prize will be $30.00, second $25.00 and third place $20.00. The judges will visit throughout Idaho City, Duquette Pines, and Highway 21 to Mile marker #30.

Horseshoe Bend Boys' Basketball

By Tracy Koslosky

HORSESHOE BEND --

The Horseshoe Bend Varsity Mustangs played back-to-back games at home on December 16th and 17th. On Thursday, 12/16, the team went up against fellow 1A DII Long Pin conference rivals, the Tri-Valley Titans. The Mustangs chalked up a definitive win against the Titans, 65-22, putting them 1-0 in conference play. Sophomore Porter Larson had 20 points in the game, followed by his older brother, senior Derek Larson, with 12 total points. Sophomores Kaelun Jones and Layth Brogard each had 10 points. Sophomore Carson Drake had 5 points while junior Blayne Meyer and sophomore Nic Cooper each had 4 points.

On the home court again on Friday, 12/17, the Mustangs did not fare as well against the 7-0 overall 1A DII Sawtooth conference Camas County Musers from Fairfield. The Musers put Horseshoe Bend through a defensive workout that ended with a 29-39 loss for the varsity Mustangs. Brogard and P. Larson had 7 points each, followed by Meyer with 5 points, Jones with 4 points, and D.Larson and Drake each with 3 points. The loss puts Horseshoe Bend 2-4 for the season.

The team is on the road over the winter break for the Truckstop.com which takes place December 28-30.

Monte See Memorial Heifer Legacy Project Continues

By Rebecca Mills

Univ. of Idaho Extension Gem & Boise Counties Extension Educator for 4-H/Livestock/ Small Acreage

BOISE COUNTY -- Monte See (1940-2019) lived in Gem County and was an avid supporter of local youth and the cattle industry. He was a hard-working and creative man, often giving selflessly to support others and causes that were important to him.

In 2020, a committee formed to honor Monte See's passion for youth and cattle and created the Monte See Memorial Heifer Legacy Project. The goals of the project are to inspire future cattle producers and create mentoring relationships between current industry professionals and the next generation. Youth are asked to select a heifer calf and provide care for her as she grows to breeding stage and through having her first calf (a two-year commitment). The youth are also asked to show her as a heifer (year 1) and as a cow-calf pair (year 2) exhibit at the Gem-Boise County Fair. Youth can be either a 4-H or FFA member to participate in the project.

For the 2021-2022 project year, youth were asked to write an essay and participate in an interview for the opportunity to receive a scholarship of up to $1000 toward the purchase of a heifer calf. Funds for the scholarship were provided by Erin See Bolen (Monte See's daughter), Cowboys Chophouse, and Dan Hinman. The buckle was provided by Karol Burlile and a variety of show and feeding supplies were provided by BAG Farms (Beth and Grant

Award presentation L to R: Kim Judy, Beth Carter, Kaleb Willey, Rebecca Mills, Lisa Willey, Keelee Willey, and Kyle Willey.

Carter). Committee members are Kim Judy, Karol Burlile, Chris Gillespie, and Rebecca Mills. Sara Fry, cattle producer from Horseshoe Bend, also helped with the interview.

Kaleb Willey was selected as the 2021-2022 winner of the Monte See Memorial Heifer Legacy Project. Kaleb is the son of Larabee and Lisa Willey of Garden Valley and a member of the Garden Valley 4-H Club. This will be his first time exhibiting a beef project. He will add the beef breeding project to his 4-H project list along with market goats.

The Willey name may sound familiar in association with the Monte See Heifer project. That's because the 2020-2021 winner was Kyle Willey, Kaleb's older brother. Kyle Willey, also a member the Garden Valley 4-H Club, successfully developed the heifer he received in December 2020 ("Frankie") so that she could be bred. He also showed her at the 2021 Gem-Boise County Fair, receiving blue ribbons in both showmanship and quality. Frankie is due to calve in early March.

4-H Enrollment ending January 15th for the 2022 Fair Season

The University of Idaho 4-H Youth Development program in Gem and Boise counties is currently taking enrollments for the 2021-2022 4-H year. Youth ages 5-18 are grouped with peers and adult volunteers in a club. There are currently clubs in Garden Valley, Horseshoe Bend, and Idaho City open and ready for your youth to join! Youth may participate in a variety of projects from animals to foods, science, or art. Many youth that participate in 4-H discover areas of interest that carry on to be part of their careers as adults or hobbies throughout their lives. The life skills such as independence, generosity, teamwork, confidence, public speaking, goal setting and more are definitely applicable for many years to come. If you're interested in learning more about 4-H, please contact the University of Idaho Extension office serving Gem and Boise Counties at 208-365-6363. Enrollments are closing for the 2021-2022 4-H year on January 15th so don't delay. You can also email 4-H Program Coordinator, Chane' Nelson, at chanen@uidaho.edu and she'll call you to discuss getting involved. Please note that the Extension office will be closed Friday, December 24th and December 31st for the Christmas and New Years holidays.

BOISE COUNTY

15-Year High for Traffic Fatalities in Idaho

ISP joins a statewide effort to increase DUI Patrols as traffic deaths on Idaho roadways are at a 15-year high

BOISE COUNTY -- Troopers with the Idaho State Police are joining law enforcement agencies throughout the state this holiday with increased patrols to remove DUI drivers from Idaho roadways. The effort comes at a time when many celebrations often include alcohol, and traffic fatalities across Idaho are at a 15-year high according to the Idaho Transportation Department Office of Highway Safety.

"Putting others at risk with dangerous driving behavior is simply not acceptable. ISP Troopers join our partner agencies and our communities in having zero tolerance for impaired driving," said Sgt. Justin Scotch of the Idaho State Police District 1 DUI Team based in Coeur d'Alene.

"When holiday celebrations include alcohol, we need folks to think and plan ahead for a safe, sober ride home. A trip with a rideshare, taxi, or designated driver is a lot better than a trip to jail." Said Sgt. Scotch.

Idaho State Police DUI efforts will increase statewide beginning Friday, December 17, and through New Year's Eve weekend.

DUI education and enforcement is intended to keep families safe and sound every day, including through this holiday season.

- Traffic fatalities in Idaho are at a 15-year high. So far this year, ITD OHS reports at least 254 people have been killed in traffic crashes. That compares to 195 traffic fatalities through this date last year, and the most fatalities in a single year since 2006.

- Between 2016 and 2020, 36% of all fatal crashes in Idaho were related to impaired driving, according to the ITD OHS.

- Between January 1, and December 15, 2021, Troopers with the Idaho State Police have located and charged 1,453 drivers with impaired driving-related criminal offenses.

ISP Troopers appreciate the support of partner agencies and are exceptionally grateful for community support, including volunteers from Mothers Against Drunk Driving.

"We are aware that behind every fatal crash is a family who will forever feel broken by the loss of a loved one. As crash investigators, we talk with those families and many volunteers with MADD are families who continue to feel those losses," said Sgt. Curt Sproat of the Idaho State Police District 3 DUI Team based in Meridian.

"Together as a community, we need to make safe, sober driving the standard in this great state."

What can you do?

- Talk with friends and family about the importance of driving sober and, as a passenger, never get into a vehicle with a driver who may be under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

- Plan your safe ride home before alcohol clouds your judgment;

- Choose a non-drinking friend as a designated driver;

- Arrange for a ride share service or taxi.

- If you're hosting a party where alcohol will be served, also include non-alcoholic beverage options.

- If someone you know is about to drink and drive, take the keys away and help with arrangements to get them a safe ride.

- Always wear your seat belt - it's your best defense against impaired drivers.

- If you see what could be an impaired driver on the road, call *477(*ISP) or call 911. Your actions could save a life.

Funding for extra DUI patrols is provided by a grant from the Idaho Transportation Department Office of Highway Safety through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Thank you to these agencies for supporting ISP's efforts to keep Idaho's roadways safe.

Gift Ideas for Christmas

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

BOISE COUNTY -- This Christmas give somebody the gift of mercy and forgiveness. Be broad with your giving and generous. We all need a lot of both. For such a joyful holiday of cheer, giving and yuletide merriment there is much to be stressed about.

Typically, people have been stressed about all the holiday parties, gatherings and Christmas scheduling. This year there is more stress related to sickness, masks, vaccinations, Omicron, natural disasters, filled hospitals, massive numbers of funerals, and inflation. The last couple of Christmases have not been life as usual for most of us.

You may have watched Chevy Chase in "National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation." He becomes over-the-top stressed out when his Christmas lights won't work and he literally kicks, stomps, and curses a blue streak across his yard. It's a funny scene. Mostly because in some way we've all been there a time or two.

Most of us enjoy giving if we can. We enjoy giving to the people we love. Christmas trees, decorating, eating, and gatherings are all a part of the season. However, we become frustrated when we lose sight of the big picture. The big picture includes looking around and beyond our Christmas pain. Millions of people would simply be thrilled to have the problems that some of us have. Many people are in the nursing home and will never go to the mall again. Some have a terminal disease and this may be their last Christmas. Depression will weigh heavy on many who have lost their homes, buried loved ones, or experienced financial devastation from medical care or natural disasters. Most of these people would love to have a house to decorate or gifts to buy for a loved one.

Celebrate Christmas this year. Give away some special gifts. Give gifts that money can't buy or time cannot fade. Give love, give forgiveness, and give some mercy. Extend these generously to yourself. If you can't give them to yourself, it's impossible to give them to others.

The little baby that Christmas celebrates became a man and taught people that we should love God and love others as we love ourselves. Herein is part of the rub. Too often people stop loving themselves. Life becomes imperfect, we fail, get hurt or mad, and we kick Santa or the reindeer across the yard. Unfortunately, we don't stop there. We go into Ebenezer Scrooge "bah humbug" mode. We don't get our groove back and miss out on some of Christmas' most wonderful characteristics- mercy and forgiveness.

The Christmas story is about a child who came to show us the way. He showed us how to love, forgive, and be merciful. Some of the people in your life probably need it more than you know. Give generously and start with yourself.

ITD Reminds Motorists of Snow Plow Safety

ITD issues reminder on plow safety following six incidents in two weeks

BOISE—With snow in the forecast for several regions in the state, the Idaho Transportation Department would like to remind drivers how to travel with plows on the road.

In just the last two weeks, there have been four incidents of drivers striking plows and two incidents of drivers forcing them off the road. This compares to eight plow strikes recorded last year. Most of the collisions have occurred after other drivers tried passing plows on the right.

Drivers should be aware that most ITD trucks have two plows: one on the front, and one that extends from the right side known as a wing plow. Lights alert drivers to the presence of wing plows, but during storms those lights and the wing plows can be obscured by plumes of snow.

So far this winter, plows have been struck in nearly every region of the state:

On Dec. 9, a plow was hit on Interstate 90 near the Rose Lake exit when a driver tried to pass on the right.

On Dec. 14, a plow on U.S. Highway 95 near Moscow was forced off the road to avoid hitting a vehicle that had lost control and was in the opposing lane.

On Dec. 16, a plow was hit on U.S. Highway 20 near Ashton and on Interstate 84 near Twin Falls. Both incidents involved drivers trying to pass on the right. That same night, a plow on US-95 near Winchester was forced off the road to avoid hitting a vehicle that had lost control and was in the opposing lane.

The latest plow strike occurred this morning on I-90 near Osburn. Another vehicle attempted to pass the plow on the right, collided with the wing, and forced the plow off the road. The driver then fled the scene. The Idaho State Police are investigating the incident.

To date no one has been injured. However, plows must be checked for any damage before being put back into service, which stretches resources thin with a direct impact to driving conditions.

"This time of year drivers need to take their time and never pass a plow on the right," said Jerry Wilson, the operations engineer for North Idaho. "Let's all get home safely."

Know before you go and check 511.idaho.gov for road conditions before traveling. For winter driving tips, visit itd.idaho.gov/travel.

Idaho City Wildcat Basketball

The Idaho City Wildcats took on the Gem State Adventist Academy Jaguars and were leading at halftime. Unfortunately, there was an impending snowstorm and the final score was not posted for the game played on December 15th.

Calligraphy at the Library

IDAHO CITY -- Dave Kuwahara and Barbara McClain have hung some calligraphy pieces from their personal collections in the Community Room at the Boise Basin Library. The exhibit will run through March 2022. It contains pieces by notable and renowned calligraphers from around the United States, included pieces by Peter Thornton, Carl Rohrs, Amity Parks, Thomas Ingmire, and Sheri Trial.

Happier Holidays with Community Food Boxes

By Georgene Thomas
IDAHO CITY/ BOISE BASIN -- The Community Boxes were delivered on December 18, 2021. This food drive was organized by Brent Adamson alongside members from different churches and local organizations. The planning starts in October and progresses through the winter months, until the big delivery day. There were many donations and helpers made it a big success!

Donations poured in from the community and organizations; items included sugar, spice, and everything nice for the holidays.

Hamburger, chickens, hams, and turkeys were handed out by Cheryl Minto to each family. Photos by Georgene Thomas

Here are some of the donated food products, sorted and waiting to be put into boxes. It's a concern that children have enough to eat through the holiday break, while they're off from school.

Empty boxes waiting to be filled.
