Dedicated Site for Veterans' Memorial and Wall of Heroes

By Tracy Koslosky

HORSESHOE BEND --

Stormy weather couldn't stop the Horseshoe Bend Veterans Memorial dedication ceremony on May 30, 2022. Memorial Day dawned wet and rainy, but miraculously, Mother Nature halted the deluge and the dedication at the proposed Wood's Memorial Park was a huge success!

An estimated crowd of around four hundred individuals braved the weather to honor our country's fallen heroes and take part in the dedication ceremony of the future site of the Horseshoe Bend Veterans Memorial and Wall of Heroes. There were members of the Veterans and Patriots Association, Combat Vets, Horseshoe Bend firefighters, Horseshoe Bend Swift Water Rescue team, Horseshoe Bend EMTs, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Boise and Ada County Sheriff Departments, and veterans from all over the Treasure Valley and the community of Horseshoe Bend.

The project has been a labor of love between the Horseshoe Bend Valley Chamber of Commerce and the surrounding community for almost two years.

The 25th Army Band played for the assembled crowd and after an opening prayer by Horseshoe Bend Valley Christian Pastor Marty Broom, the Young Marines Honor Guard raised the flag with assistance from the Veterans and Patriots Association and Combat Vets.

Unfortunately, the weather grounded the 190th Air Force Fighter Squadron, so the much anticipated flyover was put on hold. Dave Nudo sang the National Anthem before Colonel Tom Shuler, Idaho Air National Guard, took the stage and recounted his experiences with call signs and the meanings behind them.

IDAHO CITY -- The high school gymnasium was packed with family and friends in support of their graduates on Saturday, May 28, 2022.

Community support is strong in Idaho City. The total local scholarship amount given out was $35,550. However, this graduating class was offered just over $205,000 in scholarship money in total, which includes the college offers, state, local, and national scholarships.

The class motto read: "Chase your dreams, but always know the road that'll lead you home again."

There were a total of twenty-two graduates this year. The commencement address was given by Warren Barnes, Salutatorian was Sierra Green, and Valedictorian was Ruby Olvera.

The seniors gave high fives as they passed through the halls of the elementary after their graduation rehearsal. This is a longstanding tradition, in which all the classes come out and line the hallway to see the graduates! Photo by Pamela Dougherty

Valedictorian Ruby Olvera dedicated her speech to Mrs. Christy Rousset, a first grade teacher who recently and unexpectedly passed away. Olvera spoke about those who inspired her along her journey, service, true success, and turning dreams into reality. She added, "This world needs so much help."

Salutatorian Sierra Green acknowledged that even through all the struggles and setbacks, "Time stops for no one."

Celebrating Veterans on Memorial Day

By Linda Ruppel, DDS

GARDEN VALLEY -- A blustery day greeted a crowd of about a hundred people who gathered to remember their loved ones who served in the United States Armed Forces. There were fifty-four new bricks dedicated at the Garden Valley Veterans Memorial Wall.

Hosting the ceremony was Charles Snurkowski and Cathy Garner. The audience joined in saying the Pledge of Allegiance, then a beautiful rendition of the Star Spangled Banner was performed by Miss Kendall Williamson.

Pastor Brian Smith of the Crouch Community Church gave the invocation, remembering fallen friends and family and praying for better health for those who could not attend the ceremony on Monday.

Snurkowski gave a brief history of Memorial Day, formerly known as Dedication Day, and Lois Davis told the story of the inspiration of the Memorial Wall, which led to a total of three hundred and six bricks placed so far on the wall.

Gold Star families were recognized and the fifty-four new bricks were acknowledged with present family members telling their stories.

Cathy Garner read part of the poem, "We Remember" in which she added some appropriate verses (the author of the poem is unknown) as the crowd joined in the chorus, "We Remember."

Superintendent and veteran Randy Thompson had a family emergency in Georgia and could not play Taps in person, so Kea Loveland provided the sound system to play Taps, followed by a minute of silence and reflection.

Taps is normally played at 3PM, but on this day there was an exception. The flag was raised back up to full staff at 3PM, as decreed.

Remembering and honoring those who gave the ultimate sacrifice to protect our country's freedoms.

BE WILDFIRE READY

Every summer, wildfires threaten our forests, farms, homes and businesses. They can also cause power outages.

In extreme weather conditions, these outages could last hours or even days, especially if a public safety power shutoff (PSPS) is necessary.

Here are some tips for staying safe in a wildfire-related outage:

Update your contact information at idahopower.com/contactupdate.

Prepare for medical needs like refrigerated medicine or electrically powered medical equipment. This could mean finding a place to go during an outage or using a back-up generator.

Make a plan for feeding and watering pets and livestock in case power to your well pump goes out.

Visit idahopower.com/wildfire for more tips on wildfire safety, such as how to build a summer outage kit, and to learn what Idaho Power is doing to protect the grid.
