Spooky Fall Family Festival

SATURDAY, OCT 8 *1:30 PM - 5 PM

Cowboy Campground in Idaho City
3960 Highway, Idaho City, 3/4 mile past Idaho City, Idaho

Submitted by Sabrina Amidon

IDAHO CITY -- The Spooky Fall Family Festival is celebrating their 2nd year at Cowboy Campground in Legacy Park this Saturday, Oct 8th. The fun starts at 11 am at Simply Fun on Main Street for the Downtown Scavenger Crawl for Candy. When you hand in your completed scavenger form at Cowboy Campground you can get an additional prize! Then join in for more fun!!

This year there are a few added items. The event features not only a carriage pony and horse rides, but the Spook Alley, which promises to have a few scary things. Family Friendly overall, lots of fun for all ages!! Speaking of spooky, once every hour starting at 2 pm, there will be a narrated "Spook Play" at the courtyard, featuring a lovely pony named Tater Tot. Some of you met him last Saturday during Idaho City Days, between the Straw Maze sponsored by Legacy Park Trust and the well-attended Bouncy House attraction brought to you by the Idaho City Chamber of Commerce.

Story telling will be happening along with LEGO activities and did we mention food!?!?! Yes, the Mountaineer 4-H Club will serve ghostly food for their fundraiser.

Don't dawdle, the Spooks will call it quits at 5 pm and will return to their home to set up another show in Boise.

Put on YOUR favorite costume for the costume contest! Categories include Dogs, Kids 10 under, Youth, and Adult categories. We can't forget the horses!! Yes, even horses and riders in costume!

See, if you don't attend, you will miss out on a great event that is growing each year!

The funds raised will benefit the Legacy Park Trust @ Cowboy Campground and the newly created Legacy Park Riders Association, in addition to other groups. The entry fee covers most of the events, except the horse and carriage rides, these are brought up by different entities, please bring a little extra to tip them for the fun they will provide.

Check the ad for pricing or go to www.CowboyCampground.com for additional information. If you would like to volunteer at the event or be one of their spooky actors, please contact them through the website.

IDAHO CITY -- The 2nd Annual Gold Nugget Disc Golf Tournament was held this past Sunday at the Idaho Center for Outdoor Education. Organized by Jason Oxen, the donated proceeds raised from last year's event added up to just over $1,000, and it is expected to be close to the same this year. All the donations go towards the Idaho Center for Outdoor Education fund, to help get students outside to study, play, and be good land stewards.

Special thanks to the disc golf sponsors, whose generosity included 208 discs: Larry Morton, Bria Disc Golf, John Dubose Sr, Tony Dubose, Clarisa Bingham, Aimee Towell, Belize Disc Golf, James Litchfield, Dan Solari, Vincent Cariaga, Craig Etherton, Matthew Daniel, and Jeremy Roberts.

GVSD has Partnered with School Pulse

By Randy K. Thompson
Superintendent
Garden Valley School District #71

GARDEN VALLEY -- The Garden Valley School district recently rolled out a new product to help its Middle School and High School students cope with the daily challenges of life. GVSD has partnered with School Pulse, a company that focuses on positive psychology with a proactive approach through text messages delivered to students. Instead of passively waiting for a crisis to happen, School Pulse proactively sends positive text messages to students every few days. These messages are designed to promote positive and productive thought processes and mental fitness in students. While School Pulse actively sends texts to students each week, students also have the ability to reach out to School Pulse whenever they want to communicate or need a listening ear. Garden Valley Schools Superintendent Randy Thompson highlighted the proactive approach of School Pulse. "We see value in this product for our middle and high school students, not only in the fact that it provides a positive and productive communication outlet for our students, but especially in the proactive approach employed by School Pulse that focuses on prevention rather than reaction to crises." The school held an assembly to communicate and roll out the program. It is completely voluntary and all student information is kept private. Students have to scan a QR code with their mobile device to opt in. The students were excited to have this new program and all indications are that it will be extremely beneficial for students.

Co-founder of SchoolPulse, Iuri Melo - see schoolpulse.com

A special school assembly was held on September 26th for 6th through 12th graders to learn about a mental health program called School Pulse. Currently, it is being used in 70 schools in over 10 states.
