Prescribed Fires in Boise County

BOISE COUNTY — The U.S. Forest Service has begun burning piles of vegetation debris throughout the Boise National Forest. This is an effort to reduce hazardous fuels that are generated by logging, thinning operations, and administrative site clearing. These piles will generate smoke from around the Bogus Basin ski resort, Lowman, south of High

Valley and north of Crouch, Idaho. For updates please visit the Forest's Facebook page at: <https://www.facebook.com/BoiseNationalForest>. Prescribed burns may affect travel and access routes. There will be notices posted, and the Forest Service asks that, with the decreased visibility, motorists drive slowly and remain aware that firefighters and equipment are in the area and on the roadways.

There is an interactive map with the latest planned areas of prescribed fire treatments at <https://bit.ly/IDprescribed-fire>. Zoom into your areas of interest to get the latest information. BOISE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Transcribed by Eileen Capson

October 25, 2022

Present: Commissioners Ryan Stirm (Acting Chairman) and Clay Tucker

Absent: Commissioner Steven Twilegar

Pledge of Allegiance

CONSTITUENT INPUT: None

MINUTES: Commissioner Stirm motioned to approve the official meeting minutes from October 18, 2022. Commissioner Tucker seconded and the motion passed.

PAYROLL CHANGES WITH SOLID WASTE: Commissioner Stirm motioned to approve the payroll changes per the department head's request.

CLAIMS APPROVAL: Clerk Mary Prisco explained, "We're still in the period where we cannot separate the 2023 budget from the 2022 budget." There were two claims approval reports. [Revisited later in the meeting] Commissioner Stirm motioned to approve the claims approval report for FY2022 in the amount of $46,083. Tucker seconded and the motion passed. Stirm then motioned to approve the claims approval report for FY2023 in the amount of $84,119. The motion carried.

DEMAND WARRANTS: Commissioner Stirm motioned to pay "H&H Treatment Program" for the Clerk's office in the amount of $1,710 for "client treatment assessment." All were in favor and the motion passed. Commissioner Stirm clarified, "Just so everybody knows, that's a psychological treatment." It was stated by others in the room that the treatment was for a defendant in the court.

Commissioner Stirm motioned to approve an auto glass business $950 from an accident. Clerk Prisco recapped that the windshield was damaged while an elected official was attending a conference up north, "and unfortunately, that vehicle is new enough that it has the cameras built into the windshield, so that's why it's so expensive." Stirm motioned to approve the expenditure for the windshield replacement deductible. The motion carried.

Stirm then motioned to pay $394.14 for petroleum products, items for the Idaho City snow groomer, diesel, and oil.

EXEMPT RECORDS: Closed session for exempt records and pending litigation. [Time 9:14 am to 9:20 am] Coming back into session, Stirm said, "There's no action required."

JUVENILE JUSTICE: Amanda Leader said they have had an increase of people on electronic monitoring. Commissioner Stirm asked if the bats on the building had flown away, since it was cold. Leader said she wasn't excited to find that the reason they were having problems with their heating and cooling was that the unit was covered in bat guano.

EMERGENCY MANAGER: Trinia Richardson has been finishing up classes for emergency management.

SOLID WASTE: Paul Rekow said they are about ready to burn, as weather permits, the burn pile at the transfer stations.

ROAD DEPARTMENT: Curtis Dill said he moved one of his guys from Horseshoe Bend over to Garden Valley, "so at least there's one person in Garden Valley." He's hoping another part-time worker will come back and open up another position in Horseshoe Bend. The road department is getting geared up for winter, "but it may be a slow go for some areas, where they may not get plowed. We don't know yet." Dill said he has Idaho City and Horseshoe Bend overlapping to help on Alder Creek Road. "We'll do what we can."

ASSESSOR: Chris Juszczak said they were "plugging away" and needed more people to apply.

SHERIFF: "We're staying busy, from one extreme to the other," said Sheriff Scott Turner. Due to hunting season, the department has had reports of "a lot of lost people and wounded people." They have had search and rescue up numerous times. Sheriff Turner is expecting that once winter hits, they will have vehicles stuck, stranded people, "and everything else."

PROSECUTOR: Adam Strong said they have been busy, "but nothing out of the ordinary. Just the normal criminal court stuff and normal civil stuff." Commissioner Stirm asked if the court was still backed up from COVID. Prosecutor Strong replied that the court is always backed up, "but I think we're through the COVID backlog." He explained that things take time to make it to court.

CLERK: Mary Prisco spoke about the elections and explained that they were going to have poll watchers, "according to law." There will be watchers from the Boise County Republican Central Committee, a list was submitted, and one from the Ammon Bundy team.

She said they are working through "the last leg of the audit for 2021 marathon."

RS2477 ROADS: A public hearing RS2477 road validation was opened through a motion and the hearing was tabled until December 13th at 1:15. The board will allow for written public comments up until December 1st. Verbal public comments will be allowed on December 13 during the public hearing. The motion carried.

Adjourned until November 1st. (There will be discussion on whether the board will meet the follow week, due to the election.)

Batty at the Library in Garden Valley

By Marjolein Lolkema

GARDEN VALLEY DISTRICT LIBRARY -- Bats can be scary creatures, they can come into your house. Many of us worry that they will get into the house and bite us, or get tangled in our hair. Lots of people are afraid of bats. But Jennifer Haney (Forest Service bat specialist) came to the Garden Valley District Library to share the positive qualities of bats and correct misinformation. "Bats don't get tangled in your hair, they can see. When you have a bat in your house, just open a door or a window and wait, they don't want to be there, they will fly away. Bats don't bite you, if you leave them alone - they are super afraid of us", Haney told the public. Jennifer Haney also showed how big the biggest bat in the world is (BIG), alongside the wingspan of a fruit bat. And she showed us how little the smallest bat in the world is, the bumblebee bat.

Library visitors also had the possibility to make a bat craft: a flying bat. And the Forest Service brought some pumpkins, so you could cut out a bat and have a jack o' lantern for Halloween.

Jennifer Haney hopes people will appreciate bats more. "They belong in our environment and can eat more than 1000 mosquitos in an hour! So we need to have bats, they are important."

The Idaho City Wildcats had enough wins to participate in the Idaho State Playoffs. Coming in as the underdogs, they traveled to Carey, Idaho to take on the Carey Panthers on Friday, October 28th. It was a tough, competitive game and the boys represented Idaho City well in their execution, but they came up short. Idaho City did not walk away with the "W." However, making it to the playoffs was a great accomplishment for our Wildcats!

CALL TO ACTION – IDAHO VOTERS

YOU CAN GET OUT MANY CITIZENS TO VOTE BY DOING THE FOLLOWING:

Each of you must call at least 10 family members and friends and tell them to contact 10 family members and friends. Offer a ride to the polls when one is needed. In order for us to beat the "machine," we must get out the vote in overwhelming numbers.

Many people do not vote in midterm elections. We must change the pattern this election to save our country and state! This is the most important election since the 1860's civil war!!

"One of the worst and most sinister aspects of the Biden administration is the complete and total corruption of our justice system and the rule of law. Before our very eyes, Biden and his left wing handlers are turning America into a police state. And I don't even think it's Biden to be honest with you, but they got some bad people around, like something straight out of a communist country.

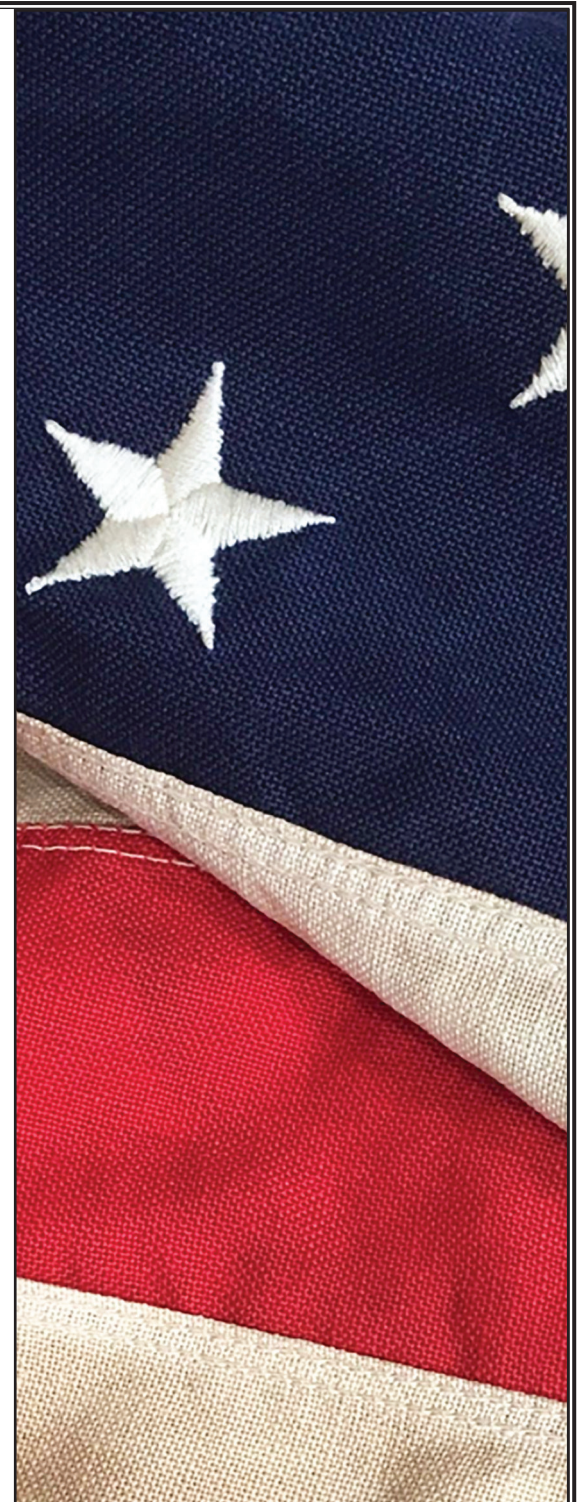

"See, I used to say socialists, but we've skipped socialism. We don't talk about that. I don't even mention it anymore. We're not socialists anymore, we're communists. We've gone over socialism, we're gone. It's over. It's communist. They're talking about communist. This is a communist system that we're putting up with right now. The radical Democrats are locking up pro-life activists, persecuting their political opponents, spying on their political rivals, silencing dissent, and using the full force of government, law enforcement and the media to try and crush our movement. And let me tell you, the media is a big problem because they're corrupt and dishonest."

Idaho Constitutional Amendment SJR 102

Legislative Council's Statement of Meaning, Purpose, and Result to Be Accomplished

Currently, the Legislature may meet in a special session only upon call of the Governor. The proposed amendment would allow the Legislature to convene itself in special session if 60% of the members in each house submit a petition to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The petition must specify the subjects to be addressed in the special session, and only those subjects could be considered during the special session.

The amendment also requires the Legislature to hold an organizational session in December following a general election. The purpose of the organizational session is to prepare for the upcoming regular session. The proposed amendment would formalize in the Idaho Constitution the Legislature's longstanding practice of holding an organizational session.

Statements FOR the Proposed Amendment

This constitutional amendment is needed to correct an imbalance of power among the three branches of government. The executive and judicial branches of government have no restrictions on their ability to conduct business when and as they deem appropriate, and the legislative branch should have the same power.

Idaho is one of just 12 states whose legislature has no power to convene itself into a special session under certain circumstances. The Idaho Legislature should not be dependent on the Governor to call it into special session when extraordinary events occur. For example, in 2020, the Idaho Legislature wished to convene to consider Covid-19 matters and the expenditure of federal funding related to the pandemic but the Governor delayed convening the Legislature. Idaho should join the 38 states (including all of Idaho's neighboring states) that recognize the legislative branch of government's right to determine independently when it should convene and conduct the business of the people it represents.

Authorizing the Legislature to convene itself into special session will prevent the need for one or both houses of the Legislature to defer adjourning sine die indefinitely as happened in 2021 when the House of Representatives wanted to preserve its right to take up anticipated issues later in the year. Deferring the date of adjourning sine die results in numerous administrative problems such as delaying effective dates of legislation and administrative rules. If the Legislature is able to convene itself, there will be no need to avoid adjourning sine die.

The proposed amendment contains sufficient safeguards against any potential abuse of power by limiting the subjects of legislation to be considered during a special session to those listed in the petition, just as a special session called by the Governor is limited to the subjects listed in the Governor's proclamation.

Statements AGAINST the Proposed Amendment

The Legislature has conducted its business for over 130 years without needing the ability to call itself into special session. This constitutional amendment is not necessary because the Governor has called and can continue to call the Legislature into a special session when necessary. Passing this amendment would remove a check and balance from the Idaho Constitution.

The Idaho Legislature is a part-time citizen legislature. The proposed amendment provides no limitations on how often special sessions may be called or how long they may last. Idaho should not move toward having a full-time legislature, and Idaho's part-time citizen legislators with other careers should not be burdened with sudden, unpredictable special sessions.

Idaho businesses and citizens need the stable, predictable, and routine timeline of the regular legislative session to communicate with legislators regarding the effects that pending legislation may have on businesses and citizens. The ability of the Legislature to convene itself into various special sessions may result in the passage of legislation that has not been properly vetted and could result in unintended consequences for Idaho businesses and citizens.

The proposed amendment requires a petition signed by only 60% of the members of each house of the Legislature. This threshold is too low. Many states require a higher percentage, such as 67% or 75%. A higher percentage would deter the Legislature from convening itself for subjects that may be trivial, vague, or not widely agreed upon.

Amendment Text

Section 8. SESSIONS OF THE LEGISLATURE. (1) The regular sessions of the legislature shall must be held annually at the capital of the state, commencing on the second Monday of January of each year, unless a different day shall have been appointed by law, and at other times in extraordinary sessions when convened by the governor and in organizational sessions commencing on the first Thursday of December after the general election, unless a different day shall have been appointed by law.

(2) The legislature, while remaining a part-time, citizen legislature, must also be convened in special session by the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives upon receipt of a joint written petition of at least sixty percent of the membership of each house, specifying the subjects to be considered. Such special session must commence no later than fifteen days after the petition is received by the president pro tempore of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives. At a special session convened pursuant to this section, the legislature shall have no power to consider or pass any bills or resolutions on any subjects other than those specified in the petition and those necessary to provide for the expenses of the session.

Idaho City Construction Class Builds Ticket Booth

By Georgene Thomas

IDAHO CITY -- The teachers at our Idaho City school wear many different hats. They teach multiple subjects and carry the load of many activities and duties to assure that students have a full curriculum and can attend specialty classes. For example, Tom Standerwick's daily schedule includes; High School Construction Instructor, Middle School Woodshop Instructor, 7th Grade Social Studies teacher, 8th Grade World History teacher, CTE & Perkins District Administrator, and the Middle School Football Coach.

This year, Tom Standerwick's Construction class has been making miniature homes, in exact replica of real home structures, but with precise smaller dimensions. The students must figure out the ratio, design, and create the models.

As a much-needed project, the students designed a ticket booth for the football field. This structure will be placed on location to collect tickets for the local games. The individuals who accept money for tickets will still have a great view of the football field with a full window available to watch the games. Standerwick's High School Construction class has planned, designed, measured, and is building this structure for use this coming year.
