Tenderly Prepared Food Boxes are Gifted Throughout the Community

By Georgene Thomas
IDAHO CITY -- The annual food box for 2022 was just completed. During the event, different organizations from the community work together to gather and distribute food to those in need. It is a big project, but when organized, it goes together smoothly. First, the boxes are made and marked for individual families, then food is collected through donations and brought to the Community Hall. Next, the volunteers put the food into the boxes. Finally, the food boxes are delivered by the Boosters to Centerville, Placerville, and Star Ranch. The rest of the recipients come to the Community Hall to pick up their boxes. Along with the food, they are given fresh produce, dairy products, pies, and choice of turkey, ham, chicken and hamburger. This project was organized by Brent Adamson and Pam from Life Ministries, and supported by many of the local churches and community organizations, all to ensure that families will have food to enjoy for the holidays.

Tables filled the community hall, each laden with boxes to provide food to individuals and families in the Boise Basin community.

O Holy Night, the stars are brightly shining
It is the night of our dear Savior's birth
Long lay the world in sin and error pining
'Til He appeared and the soul felt its worth
A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn
Fall on your knees, oh, hear the angel voices
O night divine, O night, when Christ was born
O night divine, O night, O night divine
Chains shall he break, for the slave is our brother
And in his name all oppression shall cease
Sweet hymns of joy in grateful raise we
Let all within us praise His holy name
Christ is the Lord
Then ever, ever praise we
Noel, Noel, O night, O night divine
Noel, Noel, O night, O night divine
O night divine, O night, when Christ was born
O night divine, O night, O night divine

BOISE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Transcribed by Eileen Capson

December 13, 2022

Present: Commissioners Steven Twilegar and Clay Tucker

Phone Conference: Commissioner Ryan Stirm

Pledge of Allegiance

MINUTES: Chairman Twilegar motioned to approve the minutes from December 5th. Commissioner Tucker seconded and the motion passed.

JUVENILE JUSTICE: A revision was discussed. Chairman Twilegar motioned to approve the amended juvenile justice annual financial report. The motion carried.

TAX CANCELLATION: Assessor Chris Juszcak explained the tax cancellation for RVs. Commissioner Tucker motioned to request a tax cancellation for a parcel of land in the amount of $1,522.83. Commissioner Stirm seconded and Chairman Twilegar abstained. The motion carried.

Juszcak said there was another tax cancellation for a house that had burned down the end of October in Terrace Lakes, so they are asking to cancel November and December, "just on the structure." Chairman Twilegar motioned to approve the tax cancellation in the amount of $121.23. The motion carried. Assessor Juszcak then said he may need them to hold off on that motion, because there was some concern for tree agriculture exemptions. Twilegar motioned to table the matter until further investigation could be done by the assessor.

Twilegar then motioned for a homeowners exemption for another property with a tax cancellation of $267.12. All were in agreement and the motion passed. He motioned for another homeowners exemption in the amount of $475.90, and the motion carried. Another tax cancellation was approved for $453.53, and all were in favor. Then another tax cancellation was approved for a homeowners exemption, House Bill 389, in the amount of $475.19. There were several others that fell under the House Bill 389, included in the homeowner exemptions in the amount of: $85, $421, $409, and $352. Each were motioned and approved. Assessor Juszcak said there was a deadline to apply for the tax cancellation.

SHERIFF: Sheriff Scott Turner said the roof is leaking where the AC unit is. Twilegar said with frustration, "Well, if it's got to be done, it's got to be done, I guess. God, these buildings are killing me." Commissioner Twilegar motioned to approve to relocate the unit for $3,500, and electrical for up to $1,400.

BILLS: There were no questions, so Chairman Twilegar motioned to approve the claims approval report in the amount of $214,715.49. Commissioner Tucker seconded and nothing was heard from Commissioner Stirm. The motion carried.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE: Sheriff Turner mentioned that the grant writer got a grant for $5,000, which he would like to discuss at next week's meeting.

ROAD DEPT: A grader was discussed, which broke down with a blade that was over ten years old. They have been plowing the snow and Chairman Twilegar said there had been "a lot of kudos online. Keep up the good work!"

EXECUTIVE SESSION: Closed session for exempt records and pending litigation. [Time 9:21am to 9:52am] Coming out of executive session, Twilegar spoke regarding the public hearing for the RS2-477 road validation in Quartzburg, "they gave us notice to withdraw the petition, so that will not be heard. The issue, however, of RS2-477 roads still exists. Maybe we'll come back to that and maybe we won't." He spoke about seeking an agreement and to see how a right-of-way discussion concluded, before they discuss the roads.

Adjourned until December 20, 2022.

Toys for Tots in Boise County

BOISE COUNTY -- The Toys for Tots program this year was coordinated through Boise County's VFW Post 142, Earl McCreary. There were a total of 86 kids that received toys this year. Each child was given several toys, and one lucky boy and girl even got a bike!

Much appreciation goes out to the Sheriff's office for allowing volunteers to sort the toys there; it was a convenient place for parents to pick up these gifts. Thanks to Vinesa Morningstar and Ed Gray for helping, sorting the toys, and getting them to their destination. Dawn Gillis coordinated with the Boise Basin School and Bundy Moore helped coordinate through the Garden Valley School District.

Special thanks to everyone in the community that helped get applications to kids. McCreary said, "Next year, my goal is to reach 100 kids. Special thanks to the Marines and Toys for Tots program. They filled 11,000 applications in the Treasure Valley and surrounding areas."

Fish & Game Winter Wildlife

Big game can handle Idaho winters, but Fish and Game steps in if emergencies arise

By Connor Liess, Public Information Specialist

BOISE COUNTY -- Fish and Game has plans in place if emergency feeding is needed

We humans aren't the only ones who can find it a bit of a struggle when a heavy winter storm rolls through Idaho. Our state's wildlife, specifically deer, elk, and pronghorn, can also find themselves in dire straits during extreme and unusual winter weather.

Idaho's wildlife has adapted over thousands of years to survive a normal winter, but sometime conditions arise that require the department to step in and help big game.

Each region in the state (except the Panhandle) has an advisory committee in place that monitors weather conditions and makes a recommendation if Fish and Game crews should feed animals.

Other situations may also arise where emergency feeding is required, but the main policy is that Idaho's wildlife should be self-sustaining and reliant on natural habitat, not supplemental feeding every winter.

Here are situations when winter feeding may be warranted:

Excessively harsh winter conditions

When extreme weather threatens massive die-offs, Fish and Game has feed stockpiled so department personnel can react. But even during normal winters, some wildlife mortality is expected, and the department's policy is that big game populations should generally be maintained under natural conditions, and with naturally available forage.

If weather conditions begin significantly affecting herd survival, Fish and Game has a system in place to determine the best approach. The regional advisory committees keep a watchful eye on several weather conditions and factors, such as snow depths, whether there's crust on snow that hinders an animal's ability to forage, and extended periods of sub-zero temperatures.

If any of these situations start to occur, the committees convene and make recommendations to Fish and Game regarding whether to begin emergency feeding.

Significant loss of winter forage

Mother Nature doesn't always play nice, and environmental factors like fire and drought can wreak havoc on a wintering deer or elk's food supply. Fish and Game wildlife managers will step in to help supplement wintering big game's diet when pre-existing forage is severely limited or nonexistent altogether.

If an animal is causing damage to private property

Fish and Game will sometimes use alternative food sources to dissuade deer and elk from feeding on a landowner's stored agricultural crops, such as hay.

If an animal is causing concern for public safety

Same goes for big game animals posing a threat to human safety. To entice big game animals away from major highways and roadways, Fish and Game wildlife managers will use feeding sites. This was the case recently in the Upper Snake Region, when Fish and Game instituted an emergency winter feeding operation to prevent a herd of elk from causing safety risks along the highways, and to keep them from mingling with local cattle operations.

Opportunities at the Library

Let's Talk About It "Living in the Modern Rural West"

IDAHO CITY -- After the holidays wrap up, we have several months of winter left that sometimes can be bleak. Wouldn't it be nice to have something interesting, informative, and fun to do? Again this year the Boise Basin Library is offering our community the opportunity to read amazing books and participate in three great discussions. The "Let's Talk About It" program brings together local libraries with humanities scholars to host a series of enhanced book discussion sessions on a particular theme. Each session focuses on a different book within the theme, and the sessions are generally hosted by a different visiting scholar each time. Participants can attend one or all of the discussion sessions. The presentation by, and interaction with, a program scholar is what sets these sessions apart from traditional book club discussions.

Our theme this year is "Living in the Modern Rural West." The books in this theme, all written by contemporary Westerners, provide a variety of perspectives on rural life in the modern West. Participants will examine questions and truths about how today's West has been shaped by four centuries of mythology and migration.

HSB School District Benefits from Idaho Power's Generous Donation

By Tracy Koslosky
HORSESHOE BEND -- For the fifth year running, the employees of Idaho Power continue to give back to local communities. Employee contributions to the Idaho Power Employee Community Fund (Idaho Power Company shareholders match those contributions almost dollar for dollar) have resulted in a generous donation to the Horseshoe Bend School District's Community School. This season's outcome was a check for $1,350.00, their largest gift to the district yet. The money will help the Horseshoe Bend Community School supplement the Holiday Care Packages they received from the United Way. The United Way provides the packages for local low-income children and their families. ## OBITUARY

Matt Moughamian
1962 - 2022

Matthew (Matt) Simon Moughamian was born in Elmhurst, IL on Sept. 15, 1962, the fourth child of Simon and Phyllis Moughamian. He grew up in Mt. Prospect, IL, with his siblings Mark, Greg, Debbie, and Dan. Strong bonds were also formed with his cousins, aunts, and uncles through many shared gatherings, usually with wonderful Armenian cuisine.

Matt was an exceptional athlete. After moving to Atlanta, GA, he played varsity basketball, varsity baseball, and excelled at cross-country. Matt loved nature and he became an avid mountaineer, summit-ing Chimborazo in Ecuador (21,000 ft.) and other high-altitude peaks, cresting Grand Teton in 2018, even when battling cancer, and hiking 95 miles on the Tour du Mont Blanc (French, Swiss and Italian Alps) in 2019. Matt and Jill also instilled their love of the mountains, the great outdoors, and sports in their children. He will be remembered for his love of the outdoors and his unwavering grit in the face of adversity.

Matt graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1984, earning a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering with High Honors. He received a full scholarship to M.I.T. and completed his Master of Engineering in 1986. Matt gave generously of his expertise and time to non-profits in water resource management engineering projects, volunteering for two years in the Peace Corps in Cayambe, Ecuador. Later in life, he volunteered to work on water resource systems in remote areas with Water for Life and other non-profit organizations in Central and South America.

Matt's first job as an engineer was in Idaho with James Montgomery Engineers. Matt and Jill bought 20 acres in Idaho City, ID, and that location became their home until the present. For the last 15 years of his career, Matt worked as a water engineer with McMillin Engineers in Boise, ID. Matt always had high expectations for himself and those around him and he was a high caliber engineer.

Beside working full-time, Matt was a father of 5 children (Paul, Sarah, James, Isabel, and Andrew) and was married to Jill for 33 years. He spent many, many weekends working on home projects, getting firewood, and still found time to hike, climb, mountain bike, raft, ice skate, explore slot canyons, and back-country ski with Jill and his kids. He was always in excellent physical shape.

Matt was preceded in death by his lovely daughter Sarah in 2021 and his brother Gregory in 1995.

Matt is survived by his mother and father (Phyllis and Simon), two brothers (Daniel and Mark), a sister (Debbie), his wife (Jill), and children (Paul, James, Isabel, and Andrew).

Throughout his life, Matt faced life's challenges with determination, strength, and courage.

Matt, you are loved, you will be missed, you will always be remembered.

Thank you!

The Christmas Wish Tree was a big success. Thank you for the part you played in giving so many Garden Valley children a more abundant and joyful Christmas.

With over 30 plus volunteers that served 24 families and 62 kids. On top of those 30 volunteers was, the First Grade class who made Christmas ornaments, folks that bought gifts for the kids, and the librarians who hosted the tree.
