Idaho City High School Celebrates a Snowy Second Homecoming

IDAHO CITY

-- "Snowcoming" is our newest way to celebrate winter sports athletes. It's an opportunity to have a pep rally, spirit week, royalty, and a dance to round out the festivities of what traditionally would be Homecoming week in the fall.

Hosted by the Idaho City National Honor Society, this "Snowcoming" proved to be a way for students to shed those winter blues and celebrate their basketball athletes. It was a big hit for all the students, and the event appears to be the first of many more annual Snowcomings to come.

HORSESHOE BEND CITY COUNCIL

By Tracy Koslosky

HORSESHOE BEND --

Due to the lack of a quorum, the regularly scheduled Horseshoe Bend City Council meeting on Wednesday, January 11, 2023 was moved to Tuesday, January 17, 2023. The following is a synopsis of that meeting.

All council members were present, city attorney Tony Pantera attended via Zoom. There were no spectators in the audience. Mayor Pat Goff made the call to order at 7:00 p.m. and then led the Pledge of Allegiance. After unanimous approval of the agenda, minutes from the previous meeting, and the authorization to pay the city's bills, Goff opened the meeting with new business.

First up on the agenda was the approval of the city's business liquor licenses. No changes were noted from last year, with the exception of the new owners of the Long Branch. All licenses were approved unanimously.

Next on the agenda was the approval of a bid to purchase a new backhoe. Public Works representative Jobie Catherman presented two bids; one for just a backhoe, the other for a backhoe plus fork attachments. Catherman told the council, "I'm kind of either way on it, they're kind of handy to have." Councilmember Stephen Chartier responded, "Well, if we need it." Catherman indicated that public works has been borrowing resident Dave Wallace's backhoe since the city's backhoe broke down. Catherman said public works uses the backhoe ten to twelve times per year, mostly for water main and sewer line repairs. Councilmember Martye White inquired if there were any grants to be had that could possibly help with the purchase, to which Goff replied, "No." Catherman told the council that he looked for a grant, but couldn't find one. The new tractor would have 4-wheel drive, unlike the previous backhoe, which has 2-wheel drive only. Goff asked about the lease options and Catherman responded that there were three options, a 3-year, 5-year, or 7-year lease. Councilmember White expressed his concerns over purchasing a John Deere backhoe, because repairs can only be done by authorized dealers, or the warranty becomes void. His other concern was, "It's a hell of a lot of money." The old tractor cost $28K, in comparison to the new backhoe at $146k. "If we're going to be digging up sewer lines, we need the equipment to do it. I think it's good to have the equipment to do it," Goff said. Councilmember Patti Burgess jokingly said, "44 years isn't that old," referring to the age of the old backhoe and then questioned if the purchase was allocated in the budget. Goff replied that it was and that the city could replace three pieces of equipment with the purchase. Catherman agreed with Goff's assessment and said the replaced equipment could go to a surplus sale. The city discussed the different lease terms and decided the 5-year would be best. Following that plan, the city will end up paying $168,392 for the backhoe, with a $1.00 final payment buyout. The lease allows for 500 hours to be put on the equipment per year and Catherman said they would never hit those hours. Councilmember White continued to lament the manufacturer choice, stating, "I wish we had another option than John Deere," adding, "John Deere is under a lawsuit right now." (John Deere is currently embroiled in a right to repair class-action lawsuit that was filed last year. The lawsuit alleges that John Deere violated the Sherman Act, a federal antitrust act.) Councilmember Curtis Corvinus made a motion to purchase the backhoe, but city attorney Pantera objected and asked that the wording "pending review by legal counsel" be added to the motion. Corvinus amended the motion and it was seconded by White. White then asked Catherman to keep looking for a different manufacturer, as he couldn't believe that nothing else could be found. Goff told White, "The supply chain is broken." He then went on to say, "I know John Deere leaves a bad taste in people's mouths, so does Case, (Horseshoe Bend's previously purchased backhoe). It's like Ford, Chevy or Dodge." Goff called for a vote and the amended motion was approved unanimously.

There was no report from the EMS Department.

Public Works: Catherman told the council, "It's been a pretty busy month." The department has been working with the county on the Boise County bridge project and a wastewater discharge permit. DEQ has named PFA and PFO contaminants as forever contaminants and public works has been receiving training on how to deal with their threat to the water system. Catherman suggested the city sign up for a preliminary self-test (as well as signing on to a class action lawsuit) to get funds to help with future clean up. He added that both plants have been running well. Catherman concluded by stating, "We'd be wise to be proactive," referring to the PFA and PFO contaminants. Chartier said it seems "it's like the next asbestos." Engineering: They are ready to submit a planning grant to receive funding for the future emerging contaminants that Catherman mentioned in the public works report. They are also working on improving the ozone disinfecting, making sure it is doing what's needed. They are currently working in conjunction with public works on the Boise Street bridge. Pantera said there was a hearing on the Canyon Street mobile home park, with no meaningful changes in fact. He stated that he would reserve any comments for a future executive meeting.

Goff adjourned the meeting at 7:31 p.m.

Garden Valley's Peter Pan Jr. was a Resounding Success

Peter Pan Jr. performers took their final bows on Friday night. These actors and actresses, 3rd through 8th grade, did an amazing job and improved their performance dramatically from the dress rehearsal to final evening. All three nights were well attended by the community.

The high school students will be performing in the spring musical at Garden Valley School. Mark your calendar and come see the Lightning Thief, the Percy Jackson Musical, on March 10th and 11th.

Garden Valley Wolverine Basketball

By Linda Ruppel, DDS

GARDEN VALLEY -- Garden Valley's Varsity Boys' Basketball team (white) overwhelmed Meadow Valley (black) on January 18th, by 78-38. Meadow Valley is a small school and GV did not use all of their varsity team players. Almost at the end of the game, the long-awaited slam dunk happened and the gym erupted in wild cheers!

It was very impressive to see several Garden Valley residents go over to the empty Meadow Valley side and cheer for the opposing team, exhibiting great sportsmanship and compassion. Despite the score, it was a great game to watch!

Polar Bear Plunge in the Middle Fork of the Payette

By Linda Ruppel, DDS

GARDEN VALLEY -- Saturday morning dipped down into single-digit temperatures, but the Mayor of Crouch, Trevor Schiefelbein, was at it again, doing the polar plunge along with some other cohorts. Bravely into the brisk waters of the Middle Fork of the Payette River they went, and just as quickly, out again.

Mayor Schiefelbein explained the reasoning behind the polar bear plunge, "I suppose it's a matter of mind over matter for me. Some people do it for fun, others might have more of a purpose behind it. I simply suggested it and several people said they wanted to."

This past weekend celebrated the Chinese New Year - the Year of the Rabbit. Unlike the proverbially timid rabbit, these mighty few were not timid about going for it. Happy New Year!

Mayor Schiefelbein was all-in for the icy plunge.

Single-digit temperatures didn't stop these hearty souls from taking the plunge into the freezing waters of the Middle Fork of the Payette River. Photos by Linda Ruppel, DDS

"Snolf" at Terrace Lakes

Contestants have a grand time chasing a little pink ball in the snow.

GARDEN VALLEY -- The game of snolf (snow-golf) was again enjoyed by all this past Saturday at Terrace Lakes Resort. The proceeds will benefit the Special Olympics, to be held at the resort on February 11th.

Julie Walls, the coordinator of the snolf events at Terrace Lakes, said they are also planning to host cross-country skiing and snow shoeing events on Feb. 11th from 10am to 2pm. She is hoping the community will come out to support and cheer on these athletes. Playing snolf involves chasing a little colored ball, in this case pink, around the "golf course" by teams of four players. Each snow-white putting green was uniquely decorated. A lot of fun was had by all!

Groups of four players play at each of the seven holes and rake the divots out after play.

There is an urgent need for blood donations from the Idaho City area. The American Red Cross may need to cancel their future trips to the area, if they are unable to reach a quota to continue. If you are able to give blood, please consider signing up. Although walk-ins are always welcome, scheduling helps the phlebotomists.

PHILANTHROPISTS NEEDED

Funds are needed to supply emergency life-saving equipment in Boise County. Specifically, the Boise County Sheriff's department is working with the Red Cross to purchase and install AEDs in each of the county's patrol cars. Officers are often the first responders on scene and AEDs are portable, life-saving devices designed to treat people experiencing sudden cardiac arrest. Each unit is roughly $1,600 and to date, we have found funds for 4 units. Please contact Bryce Sitter at #208-258-1793 for more information or to donate.

Screech owls are hard to find. People most likely will hear them, but not see them. But this time I did see a sleepy Screech owl, Montour.

LOCAL BAND MAKING IT BIG

Cliff Miller of Horseshoe Bend performs at the Sapphire Room.

By Tracy Koslosky
HORSESHOE BEND --
Born and raised in Horseshoe Bend, Cliff Miller is making a name for himself on country music stages throughout the northwest. He has performed in shows with country artists Lee Brice, Randy Houser, Jerrod Nieman, and numerous other acts.

On Saturday, January 21st, his band performed to a sold out crowd at The Sapphire Room in Boise. The band debuted new original songs and played many of their standards much to the delight of those in attendance.

Miller's band consists of Matt Hartz, Makeala Shippy,
Alfred de Varona, and Fred Fischer. The show on Saturday combined the traditional flair of boot stomping country with an edge of rock and roll.

The band's music can be found on Spotify, Amazon Music, and other streaming platforms, as well as on the cliffmillermusic.com website.

You can hear them live in Caldwell on Saturday, January 28th, at the Indian Creek Steakhouse at 9:00 p.m.
