GARDEN VALLEY -- The Garden Valley Fire Protection District held their open house last Saturday, in conjunction with the local EMS, U.S. Forest Service, and Idaho Power. The event provided a great opportunity to meet all these fine personnel, and even check out their specialized vehicles and equipment. There were toys for the kids to build, raffle tickets for a smoker kit, and Life Flight subscriptions. Tickets are still available for the complete smoker kit, and a winner will be announced at the EMS auction on July 4th.

Chief Paul Cleaveland was also on hand to meet the locals and to exhibit the new equipment the department recently purchased with the help of Payette Forward, including a new video laryngoscope and Zoll Auto Pulse Resuscitation System.

For those that missed the event, don't forget to stop by the station and renew your ambulance ticket for the year. You'll have another opportunity to meet Chief Cleaveland at the upcoming Senior Center spaghetti dinner event on Thursday, June 15th.

Fatality on Highway 55

GARDEN VALLEY -- A fatality occurred on the evening of June 7th when a tree fell on a vehicle traveling from McCall on Highway 55 at milepost 77, about 3 miles south of Banks, Idaho. Boise County Sheriff Scott Turner reiterated several times, with a heartfelt sentiment, that this was "a rough one."

A juvenile had died at the scene and the adult driver was taken to be treated at a nearby Boise hospital. The highway was closed for an extended period of time while emergency responders helped to clear the scene.

The passenger and driver were from Boise, and were unexpectedly struck by a falling tree during a windstorm last Wednesday at around 5pm.

Drug Arrest in Garden Valley

The Boise County Sheriff's Office arrested Angela Gibson, 52, and Jon Hall, 36, of Garden Valley last week after deputies noticed the strong smell of marijuana coming from their vehicle, during a routine traffic stop. Sheriff Scott Turner indicated that the vehicle was having difficulty staying within the lane of travel and would periodically cross over the center line. There was 7.5lbs of marijuana found within the vehicle, bagged and ready to distribute.

The two suspects were taken into custody, booked at the Ada County Jail, and appeared in court on June 12th for an arraignment.

Placerville's Fire Protection District Draws Concern

BOISE COUNTY -- Recently, the stability of the Placerville Fire Protection District has come into question. Placerville Mayor Brian Davies shared some of his own concerns over the condition of the fire equipment and questioned the resistance of the fire department board in sharing financial reports about the state of the fire district with the Placerville and Star Ranch communities. Additionally, Mayor Davies emphasized that the city has no jurisdiction of the Placerville Fire Protection District, which belongs in a separate taxing district. The Mayor shared concern over the lack of transparency created by this situation.

Boise County Clerk Mary Prisco stated that, "Since the Placerville FPD is a separate and distinct taxing district from Boise County, the county's role is very limited (which is the case for all the taxing districts within our county). We administer elections for the commissioner seats (if there is an election to be held) and we review the property tax budget forms (prepared by the district) prior to sending them to the State Tax Commission for review and approval of the taxing district levy rate(s). The county has no right or authority over the district's bookkeeping or financial health. Additionally, there is no requirement for an outside audit to be performed for local government agencies with an annual budget less than $150,000."

Skip Myers, the previous owner of the grocery store in Placerville, located next to the fire station, commented that he watched the Placerville Fire Chief try to start the red engine within the last year and said, "It was jumping around like a bucking horse." Since then, the engine has remained in front of the fire station.

Those local residents that have paid into the Placerville Fire Protection District are concerned about the status of their homeowner's insurance coverage. However, Centerville Fire Chief Bruce Baumhoff said they would help cover the area, as they have done in the past, until the Placerville district is on their feet again.

Boise County Sheriff Scott Turner, said in terms of emergencies, "knock on wood," there had not been a fire in Placerville in a long time. However, the fire department has been good with helping to direct the ambulance and with setting up a Life Flight landing zone. Sheriff Turner confirmed on June 12th, that no one from the district or fire department had reached out to his office to investigate. Should there be an investigation, it would likely be handed over to the Idaho State Police for a forensic accounting.

Dan Gasiorowski, current Treasurer with the Placerville Fire Protection District, had no further comments at this time. He had been on the agenda to meet with the Boise County Commissioners on June 13th regarding the request for annexation of a parcel of land into the Placerville Fire Protection District, but Gasiorowski neglected to attend. The Placerville Fire Protection District held a public meeting that a Boise County Deputy was requested to attend on Saturday, June 10th, in which this statement was submitted:

PLACERVILLE FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT
June 10, 2023

On May 19th, Tom Anderson, of Star Ranch, met with Fire truck remained stuck in the snow, and according to locals was not functional. Pictured April 2023.

Dan and Jessica Gasiorowski. He said that he represented Andrew Bourret and a majority of the community residents. He asked that Dan, Jessica, and Chief George Butters, "in the best interest of the community," to step down as the Treasurer and Firefighter, Secretary, and Fire Chief, respectively, of the Placerville Fire Protection District (PFPD). Tom stated that his group felt that Dan was the main problem in the department. Mr. Bourret has indicated that he would be willing to take over the duties of Treasurer and Mr. Anderson has indicated that he would be willing to take over the duties of the Secretary.

There have been many unfounded and untrue accusations which have been posted recently on social media, mainly the Placerville-Star Ranch Facebook page, of which Mr. Bourret is the Administrator and author of many of these attacks. These accusations have been very disruptive to the community and have undermined the trust our citizens have had in the services which Placerville Fire has provided for many years.

Accordingly, in the best interest of the community, Dan submitted his letter of retirement from all his duties as Treasurer with Placerville Fire Protection District effective September 15, 2023. Dan is resigning as a firefighter effective 0800 on July 5, 2023. Jessica is retiring as Secretary effective immediately due to conditions of her health. They are delaying their retirements to train whoever will fill their positions. George submitted his resignation papers effective at 8:00 am on July 5, 2023. Rick Barber, PFPD's Communications Officer and primary Air Medical Landing Zone officer, will also retire at that time. However, Rick will be staying on as Commissioner. Another twelve firefighters have also resigned effective 0800 on July 5, 2023.

A non-working fire engine has been blocking the bay doors, and it is unknown if the department has a working fire truck that can assist with fire suppression with at least 500 gallons of water.

Editor's Note: The Idaho World will resume with the Boise County Commissioners' Meetings when glitches can be resolved with the new county recording system and the distribution of weekly recordings.

Batter's Up for Garden Valley's Adult Softball League

On June 8th, the 5:45 pm game was blessedly cool as Fair and Square (GV-grey shirts) bested Mel's Muds (GV - light blue) in the last inning. This game was much fun to watch and I enjoyed the easy comradery among the players.

The concessions are greatly appreciated by all the spectators and the players.

Photos by Linda Ruppel, DDS

The 7:30 pm game just beat the rain, but not before a gorgeous double rainbow blessed us. Power Inc scrambled to overpower PRL (neon green) at the very bottom of the 7th inning. As always, the antics are a hoot to watch, and despite the rivalry, the friendship is obvious among the players. Emily Beckman and her husband Kenny (PRL-Payette River Landscape) took over the organizational duties previously held by George and Heidi Simpson.

Good sportmanship and good fun among community members in the adult softball league.

OBITUARY

Jefferey Moebius
1968 - 2023

Jefferey Moebius passed from this world into the realms of his Heavenly Home on Monday, June 5, 2023.

Jefferey was born on November 23, 1968. He never knew his birth family or tribal affiliation as he was placed in foster care soon after he was born. He did know he was Indigenous, but he didn't know his family history. He was adopted by Herman I. Moebius and Sonia Moebius Née Piakoski on December 24, 1971. He left his adoptive home as a teenager and spent the rest of his youth in and out of foster homes, moving every few months until he finished high school. Like some children who aged out of the system, he spent time homeless until he found a friend who allowed him to stay until he was able to get his feet under him.

Jefferey leaves behind his wife of fifteen years, Lucinda Moebius Née Hawks. Two adult sons, Zachary and Alex Moebius. A granddaughter, Kinsley Moebius, who is a joy and blessing in his life. His dream was always to take her on her first fishing trip and share his love of the sport with her. He also leaves behind his friends James and David Baker, whom he considers brothers, as well as David's children: David, Noah, Elijah, and Neveah Baker, who call him Uncle Jefferey. He was also Uncle Jefferey to Lucinda's numerous nieces and nephews and although he was often overwhelmed by her chaotic family gatherings, he loved spending time with the children and talking about their accomplishments and future ambitions. There was always an abundance of babies at these gatherings and he never passed up an opportunity to hold a baby and cuddle. He also leaves behind his best friend, Marty Sonderman and his wife Lori, who stood by him through his challenging times and helped guide his moral and spiritual development.

Jefferey struggled in his life creating and maintaining healthy relationships, perhaps as a result of his childhood trauma. He also struggled with alcoholism, which took a toll on his health and relationships. He eventually learned to trust and find himself worthy of love. He overcame his addiction in his journey to improve himself. He loved deeply and desperately, but had a difficult time expressing that love. He hopes his sons, grandchildren (future and present), and nieces and nephews know he loves them and he is so very, very proud of them. He was able to reconnect with his adoptive father prior to Herman's death in 2022 and heal some of his childhood trauma.

Jefferey spent his early career as a radio DJ. He loved music and laughter and would challenge his friends to name the artist and song when it played on the radio. He was always joking around on the radio, attempting to make his listeners laugh at all his jokes. When it came time to promote events and products, he was always willing to participate in the craziest stunts just to entertain the listeners. He even allowed a station to tattoo their logo on his arm live on the air. If you gave him a microphone and a music collection, he could make a party happen! He was able to attend concerts and meet artists and performers such as Elton John, Whitney Houston, KISS, Madonna, Britney Spears and several others over his years in radio.

Like every young boy, Jefferey dreamed of becoming a firefighter. He challenged himself, taking every class and certification he could to accomplish his dream. He started his career with Star Fire and fought as a Wildland Firefighter in Idaho, Oregon, Nevada and California, where he also worked as an EMT. He attended North Bend Fire Academy and after graduation moved to Portland, Oregon to work as a firefighter outside of the city.

He moved back to Idaho after his first marriage ended, to be near his son. He returned to work as a seasonal wildland firefighter and volunteered for Boise County Fire as an EMT. He also operated a CPR and First Aid instruction company. He continued to work for Boise County even after his below the knee amputation. His last shift was working the Road Rally Race in Idaho City. The next day he had his first of a series of strokes, effectively ending his career.

In 2017, the doctors told Jefferey and Lucinda he had at the most a year or two to live. They determined to make those years count. Jefferey's declining health limited his physical abilities, but it did not limit his ability to find joy. He outlived the doctor's prediction by almost six years. Jefferey worked with his wife to find ways to fill his days. Together, they wrote a children's book based on an experience he had as a child. "Firefighter Jeff" follows a young girl as she visits a fire station and learns what she needs to do to become a firefighter. The young girl's experience mirrors one he had as a child when he walked the few blocks to the neighborhood fire station, rang the bell, and was given a tour.

Jefferey also learned to create art. Even though he only had use of one arm and was over 90% blind, Jefferey learned an art form called Pour Painting. With the help of his wife, he mixed paints, chose the colors, and poured the paint over canvas. Other than the prep work, Jefferey created the art by himself.

Jefferey loved the outdoors and would have gladly lived in a tent if it meant he could spend his time fishing and communing with nature. He was able to fulfill his lifelong dream of going Deep Sea Fishing this past summer with Dockside Charter in Newport, Oregon. They provided a wheelchair accessible boat and extra deck hands to help get him on board and assist him with his fishing.

He was also a lifelong wrestling fan and attended every show within a five-hundred-mile radius until his health finally failed him and the trips became too taxing. He was able to meet and shake hands with a few of his favorite wrestlers and those moments gave him endless hours of joy. In addition to wrestling, Jefferey was an avid sports fan and loved attending live events. He frequently attended Boise State Football and Boise Hawks Baseball games. He and his wife never missed watching a Boise State game and frequently made them the central theme of family gatherings with the Bakers.

Jefferey found a relationship with God in the last few years of his life. With this relationship, he found a sense of community and love he never knew in his early life. He found a family with his sons, his wife, his firefighter brothers and sisters, and his faith community.

Jefferey had a hard life. He also found love and joy and faith despite his trials. In his last hours, his thoughts and words were of his sons, his wife, and his friends, calling out their names in his final moments of life. Lucinda was by his side during his last days, offering what solace she could as he passed into the next life.

The Memorial Service for Jefferey Moebius will be held at Bear Creek Park 2400 S. Stoddard Road in Meridian, Idaho on Saturday, June 24th at 11:00 AM. Friends of Jefferey are highly encouraged to attend and share their favorite memories during the service. Afterwards, we will have a potluck luncheon in the park shelter. Jefferey's desire was to have his ashes buried in the ocean. His wife and family will visit the Oregon Coast and take him on his final journey on Dockside Charters to be laid to rest in the ocean he loved.

Jefferey loved flowers and enjoyed planting as many different kinds of blooms as he could. Lucinda asks if you desire to send flowers to plant or seeds for his flower garden. Living flowers will allow her to plant a flower garden as a way to always have his memory close to her.
