HSB Fire Results in Devastating Loss for Family

By Tracy Koslosky

HORSESHOE BEND --

The Horseshoe Bend Volunteer Fire Department and Emergency Medical Services crews were hard at work this past week. On Friday, June 7, EMS received a medical call at 8:12 p.m. followed by a call for the HSB Fire Department an hour later for a structure fire with EMS on site for three medical evaluations. On Saturday, June 8, a structure fire with five medical evaluations occurred shortly after 2:00 a.m. at 115 Valley View Drive in Horseshoe Bend. The home, belonging to Ron and Keri Jones, was a total loss. Luckily, the family and their pets were unharmed.

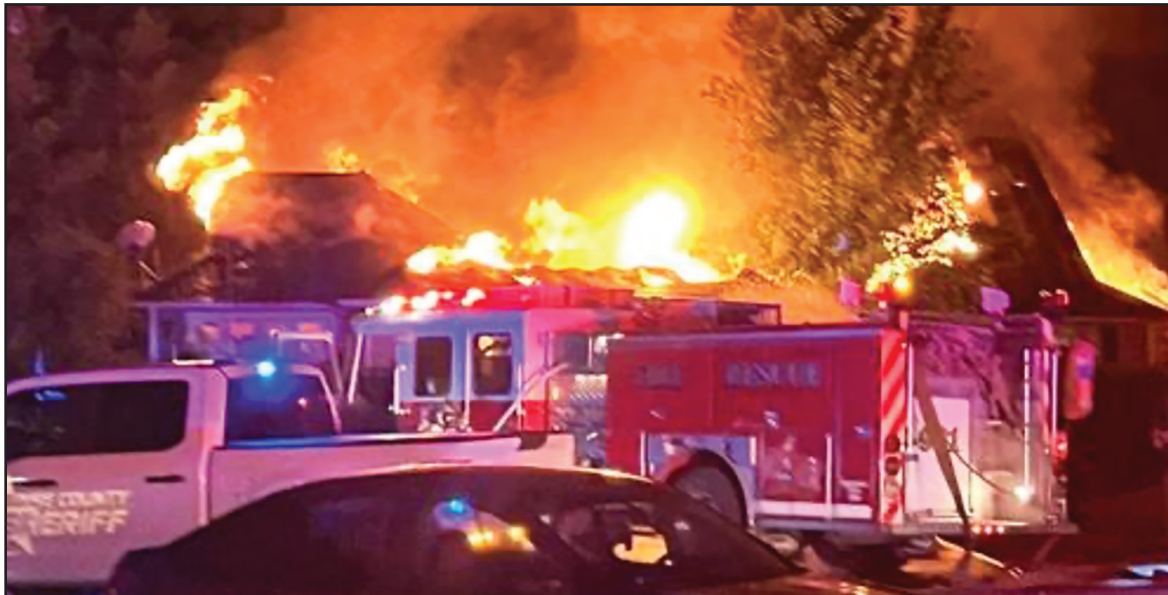

A family friend has set up a GoFundMe account for the family to help offset the costs of their immediate needs. Anyone that is able to donate can access the account by entering "Help Needed for Jones Family-House Fire" in the search bar on GoFundMe.com

The family could also use help with clothing, food, dog food, and toiletries. Sizes for clothing are as follows: Ron (dad)-Large shirts, 32/34 pants/shorts, 9.5 shoes; Kaelun (son)-Large shirts, 32 pants/shorts, 10.5 shoes; Keri (mom)-Extra Large shirts, large or XL leggings or shorts, 9 shoes; Kimber (daughter)-Medium shirts, 25/26 waist pants/shorts, 8.5 shoes. Arrangements to give monetary donations, clothing, food, etc. can be made with either Meleina Massey (208-781-0425) or Kristi Miller (208-861-9189).

According to Horseshoe Bend Fire Chief Jeff Johnson, Friday's structure fire was confined to a single room and its contents. Both fires are still under investigation by the fire marshal. Johnson said that this weekend's fire brings the total to four confirmed structural fires within the last month.

The Horseshoe Bend EMS crew was also called out at 2:20 a.m. for a possible motor vehicle crash and two additional medical emergency service calls were made on Sunday, June 9. With the extreme heat

The Jones Family of Horseshoe Bend suffered a house fire in the early morning hours of June 8. The structure and its contents were a total loss according to HSB Fire Chief Jeff Johnson. A GoFundMe account has been set up to help the family.

approaching, both volunteer organizations will be called upon for a variety of services.

For those interested in continuing to support the Horseshoe Bend Fire Department Burn Out Fund, Johnson recommends participating in the department's fundraisers. The Burn Out Fund helps community members with the overwhelming task of dealing with a catastrophic fire and is funded through fundraising activities as well as donations. Donations to the Burn Out Fund can also be made by contacting the HSB Fire Department via Facebook Messenger or contacting the fire chief at hsbfirechief@gmail.com

The aftermath of the house fire that occurred in Horseshoe Bend at approximately 2:00 a.m. on June 8. The Jones family suffered a total loss. The family disclosed the suspected source of the fire, which the Boise County Sheriff's Office said appears to be accidental in nature, but the fire is still under investigation.

Idaho City High School Graduates

Graduating seniors tossed their hats high into the air at the conclusion of their commencement on Tuesday, June 4th. Photos by Eileen Capson

“Today is an extraordinary day, one filled with pride, and joy, and a touch of nostalgia.” Touched by emotion, Julie DeWeese, the commencement speaker and English teacher, said, “Each of you have something to offer this world and I don’t want you to ever forget that... This world is big and it can be daunting and overwhelming. And if you ever feel you don’t matter in this world, always remember that you matter to me.”

This was a large graduating class of 27 students from Idaho City High School. Numerous students received local scholarships and awards.

Salutatorian Kasey Pontius thanked family and friends. She kept her talk short and recognized, “This may be one of the last times that many of us see each other. So, my final words to you, the class of 2024, are go forth and prosper.”

Valedictorian Selena Exon spoke: “Most of my life, I’ve grown up in this small town. It may not be the most luxurious place, but the people here are what make this place my home... I look around today and I realize how many people who came to support us in our accomplishments. Seniors, take a look around at all these people. They care about you.” She also added some words of advice, “Help lift one another. Don’t tear anyone down, just to bring yourself up. That doesn’t do any good. The only thing that does is bring you a temporary boost of confidence. Do something that will give you true happiness, learn to love one another and life will be less miserable. We are all in this together and we can all make this world, as a whole, a better place.”

Rauri Maulri, a standout in track and field, has signed with Cal Poly Humboldt. Maulri’s prowess in discus earned him first place at the state championships, making him a prime recruit for Cal Poly Humboldt’s esteemed track and field team. Photos courtesy of Tricia Kelly

Kaya Brown, another shining star from Idaho City High, has committed to playing softball at Porterville College in Bakersfield, California. Brown's dedication and talent on the softball field have paved the way for her to continue her athletic career at the collegiate level.

Swingin' at Boise County's Adult Softball Games

A great second base catch by Mountain Getaways: however, the team would lose to Mel's Muds 5-20 in the 5:45 game on 6-6-24.

Be sure to order my favorite, the cheeseburger meal, at the concession stand at the Crouch Community Ball Field. The volunteers running the concession stand are fabulous, friendly, and their cooking produces a wonderful wafting of yummy food aroma throughout the softball stands.

The 7:30 pm game was another mercy rule game as Fair n Square (GV) lost to Idaho Pest Control (HSB), 3-18.

On Monday (6-10-24) night, the GV adult coed softball league featured Sonora (HSB) beating Mtn. Getaways (GV), ending the game in the 5th inning with a score of 16-6.

Monday's 7:30 PM game was between KDM (HSB-Black shirt with pink numbers) against Mel's Muds (GV-Light blue shirts). Mel's Muds took the win 15-13.

Starlight Proudly Presents Seven Brides for Seven Brothers

By Linda Ruppel, DDS

GARDEN VALLEY -- The Idaho World was invited to a dress rehearsal to Seven Brides for Seven Brothers. This play was selected as another favorite of the late Ed Davis (founder of Starlight Theatre), which opened on Saturday night and will run thru mid-August. It is apropos that this musical is presented in our mountain town of Garden Valley, given the backdrop and storyline.

Starlight Theatre is celebrating its 25th season by presenting five of Davis' favorites, including The Sound of Music, Newsies, Little Shop of Horrors, The Scarlet Pimpernel, and, not to be missed, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers. Come out and enjoy the play, the atmosphere, and the beauty of the surroundings. Showtimes, camping, tickets, and more can be found on their website at www.starlightmt.com
