Honoring a WWII Veteran: A Heartfelt Presentation by VFW Post 142

A Tribute to Bill Strack

IDAHO CITY -- In a touching ceremony at the Idaho State Veterans Cemetery, the members of Idaho City VFW Post 142 presented Gayle Strack, the daughter of the post's oldest WWII veteran, Bill Strack, with a wood presentation case to hold Bill's American Flag. This act of respect and remembrance came following Bill's passing and internment at the cemetery on March 28, 2025.

Bill Strack, a revered figure and the oldest WWII veteran of VFW Post 142, left behind a legacy of courage and dedication. His service to the nation during one of its most challenging times was commemorated in this solemn event, creating a lasting tribute to his memory.

The presentation case, crafted with care and precision, symbolizes the honor and gratitude that the members of VFW Post 142 feel for the sacrifices made by Bill Strack and his comrades. It will serve as a cherished keepsake for Gayle Strack and her family, encapsulating the pride and respect that her father's service has inspired within the community.

the members of VFW Post 142. Their involvement underscores the profound respect held for Bill Strack, illustrating the deep bonds formed within the veteran community and their commitment to honoring those who have served.

This presentation case not only holds a symbol of national pride but also serves as a testament to the enduring legacy of veterans like Bill Strack, whose bravery and service continue to inspire future generations. The ceremony at the Idaho State Veterans Cemetery stands as a poignant reminder of the sacrifices made by those who fought for freedom, and the lasting impact they have on their families and communities.

GV Home Lost in a Fire

By Diane Caughlin

GARDEN VALLEY -- On Saturday, April 5th, the Wade Family of Garden Valley lost their home to fire; nothing was saved. However, on a positive note, the Wades and their animals evacuated safely. If you'd like to help them out during their time of need, there are several ways to donate. We do have a meal train in place to help with food.

If you have household items you would like to donate (they have nothing left), you are welcome to drop them off at the storage units behind the old GVP/Billy Bob's Mansion at 609 S. Middlefork Rd. You will see signs leading you to unit #7.

If you have any questions, please call Shauna Bass at 208-806-5306. She can tell you what has already been donated, so you can see if you might have anything not listed. We will be starting a list of what has been donated in a couple of days and update it frequently on Facebook.

If you'd like to make a monetary donation, MACU now has an account set up for them, just tell one of the tellers it's for the Wade Fire Donation. If you have a MACU account and would like to transfer funds to them from the comfort of your home, just give the staff at MACU a call and they can assist you. If you happen to be at the Middlefork Trading Post in Crouch, there is a donation box on the counter. Thank you, Marcia, Mike, and Rose.

If you're out of town and would like to help, I'm suggesting gift cards from places like Amazon, Walmart, Home Depot, etc. Please feel free to contact me by text at 208-781-0497 to get their mailing address.

Horseshoe Bend folks: Nick Gibling, at the Parts store, has volunteered to have items delivered to his place of business at 438 Highway 55, HSB. He will then make sure they get delivered up to GV. Thanks, Nick, for your help.

The Wade Family is very thankful for our wonderful communities.

IDAHO STATE FIRE MARSHAL'S OFFICE:

"An investigator from the Idaho State Fire Marshal's Office was unable to determine the exact cause of the fire due to the extensive damage and hazardous conditions. However, based on witness statements and photos provided, it is suspected that combustible material (structural) was too close to a heat source (chimney pipe)."

One hour later, the roof re-erupted with flames.

A Glimpse into Idaho City's Past: Historical Significance of the 1925 Aerial Photographs

IDAHO CITY -- In 1925, the Army Air Corps took a series of aerial photographs that captured the evolving landscape of Idaho City. These images provide a unique window into the city's history, offering detailed views of infrastructure and natural features of the time.

Highway 21 and the Airport Area

One of the notable aspects of these aerial photographs is the depiction of Highway 21, which traverses the area now known as the airport region. This highway was an important thoroughfare in the early 20th century, facilitating transportation and commerce in Idaho City.

Dredging Operations

The photographs also highlight significant dredging activities in the region. Elk Creek and Moore's Creek were subjected to heavy dredging, altering the landscape dramatically. In a photograph taken of Montgomery Street in 1925, extensive dredging operations are visible across the edge of town.

Architectural Heritage

When enlarged, the aerial photographs reveal several buildings that remain standing today. These structures serve as tangible links to Idaho City's rich historical heritage.

Main and Montgomery Streets

If you look towards the center of the photo, you will see two visible streets; these are Main and Montgomery streets, the foundational lines of our city that still stretch the length of Idaho City today.

The 1925 aerial photographs taken by the Army Air Corps are invaluable historical documents that capture the essence of Idaho City's transformation. They provide a detailed record of the city's infrastructure, natural features, and architectural heritage, offering a glimpse into the past that continues to resonate today.

Sheepish GV Center for the Arts

GARDEN VALLEY -- The April opening of the GV Center for the Arts featured the captivating theme "Running of the Sheep." Local artists were invited to present their interpretation of the theme in their chosen medium, resulting in a diverse and vibrant collection of artwork.

The event was a feast for the senses, with a great crowd enjoying the array of artistic expressions. The exhibits included photos, felt work, stained glass, jewelry, mosaics, Barbie dolls (my favorite each year), bookmarks, key chains, watercolors, pencil drawings, and more. Each piece was a testament to the creativity and talent of the local artists.

As always, appetizers and drinks were complementary, adding to the festive atmosphere. A special treat was the lavender-flavored lemonade provided by the Garden Valley LAZO Lavender Farm, which added a delightful touch to the event.

Visitors are encouraged to come and check out this wonderful collection of art on Fridays and Saturdays from 11 AM to 5 PM, and on Sundays from 11 AM to 2 PM. Don't miss the chance to experience the rich artistic heritage of our community at the Garden Valley Center for the Arts.

April Bingo Night at Garden Valley Senior Center

GARDEN VALLEY -- The April bingo night at the GV Senior Center was filled with excitement and some notable changes. Nancy Lute, who has been a familiar face at the center, will be moving to the valley, so she is paving the way for Deb Johnson to take over the responsibility of organizing the prize monies. Deb is being trained by Barb Baker, ensuring a smooth transition.

The raffle prizes added to the intrigue of the evening, with offerings such as a dozen fresh farm eggs catching everyone's attention. The audience was impressively large and diverse, featuring multiple generations who came together to enjoy the games. Billie DaVolt kept the atmosphere lively by calling out the ball numbers with enthusiasm.

Nikki and Nancy were actively engaged throughout the night, verifying winning cards and distributing rewards to the lucky winners. For those interested in joining the fun, bingo events at the GV Senior Center are held on the first Friday of every month, promising a delightful experience for all attendees.

Opinion ~ Boise County's Lincoln Dinner Speaker Attorney General Raúl Labrador

By Jean Mollenkopf Moore
Boise County Republican
Central Committee Chair
IDGOP Chair - Region 6
Idaho Elector 2024

BOISE COUNTY -- Boise County Republicans held its annual Lincoln dinner in celebration of America and our POTUS Donald J. Trump on Saturday, April 5, 2025, in Idaho City at the Ray Robison Community Center.

Thank you to all who attended this most successful Lincoln dinner and fundraiser held in a non-election year. We rocked the house with fun, conversation and a capacity crowd. We feasted on a full Santa Maria style Tri Tip BBQ expertly prepared by Boise County Republican's Event Chair, Steve Moore.

We thank all who helped made this event possible. We appreciate those who participated in the lively Dessert Dash, Silent Auction and Live Auction. A special thanks to IDGOP Chair Dorothy Moon for auctioning a large Trump silver coin. A thank you to Idaho City's Trudy Jackson for stepping up to auction several items including two cheese-cakes and a beautiful hand-made quilt.

We were honored to host Idaho's Attorney General Raúl Labrador as keynote speaker. He gave an inspiring message on the new era in America with Donald J. Trump, POTUS. Idaho Republicans are grateful to Raúl Labrador as he takes the lead among States in support of President Donald J. Trump.

Our Dorothy Moon-IDGOP Chair, Darr Moon-PE, Miner, Logger, Land Surveyor and Steward of the Forrest and Custer County's IDGOP Chair also spoke to us giving hope for the future of Idaho and America.

District 8's contingency of Republican conservatives also spoke to those present. Christy Zito - Senator; Rob Beiswenger - Seat A Representative, and Faye Thompson - Seat B Representative attended fresh out of the latest adjourned legislative session. They all shared some recent experiences at our State Capitol. All have conservative voting records that District 8 can be proud of. We were also honored to also have Representative Josh Tanner of District 14 present. He spoke truths to those present and was recognized as the closer getting the HealthFreedom bill finalized and to the desk of Representative Kent Marmion - District 11. Caldwell was another friend of Boise County who attended. He campaigned as a Conservative Republican in 2024, and his voting record is proof that he is a man of his word. He shared with us from the recent legislative session.

Featured entertainment was Lemhi County's GOP Precinct Committeeman Clinton Carter and his beautiful wife, Sarah Carter....aka the Carters. They performed through the evening and Sarah sang two verses of our National Anthem. No one sings quite like Idaho's songbird, Sarah Carter. The Carters are beloved to many in Idaho. They brought with them their three children who give us renewed hope for America's future.

God Bless Idaho and our Nation. Let us continue to be vigilant as POTUS Donald J. Trump leads us through these Golden Years.
